2023 OFFENSIVE NOTES

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL
• A staple of K-State football over the past decade has been committing very few turnovers, as the Wildcats are tied for second in the nation among Power 5 teams in fewest turnovers since 2012 with 166.
• That figure leads the Big 12 among teams that were in the conference in 2022, as the Wildcats are 16 better than the next closest program (Oklahoma, 182).
• The Wildcats finished the 2022 season tied for eighth nationally and tops in the Big 12 in turnover margin (+0.86 / game). It was the first time K-State finished in the top 10 nationally in turnover margin since 2016 (fourth).

PRODUCING A CLEAN POCKET
• K-State has excelled in pass blocking since 2019, as the Cats have allowed fewer than 2.0 sacks per game each of the last four seasons. It is the Wildcats' first four-year stretch under 2.0 sacks allowed per game since 1997 to 2000.
• K-State is the only Big 12 program – including the four new programs in 2023 – to currently hold a streak of at least four years allowing less than 2.0 sacks per game each season, and the Wildcats are only one of 10 FBS programs to lay that claim.

KEEPING IT 100
• Those that produced the clean pocket for the Wildcats last year all return as K-State brings back 100% of its 70 starts along the offensive line from a year ago.
• Not only did the unit shine in pass blocking, the o-line paved the way for 208.3 rushing yards per game to rank 15th in the nation, the Wildcats' best national ranking since 2003 (9th).

SCORING SURGE
• K-State averaged 36.0 points per game over the final seven games of the 2022 season, a mark that ranked first in the Big 12 and 12th among Power 5 programs.
• When looking at Big 12-only games, K-State ranked second in the league in scoring, averaging 35.2 points per Big 12 game.
• The Wildcats scored at least 34 points seven times last season, their most since the 2015 campaign.
• K-State topped 45 points each of the final two weeks of the regular season – scoring 48 points at West Virginia and 47 points against Kansas. It was the first time the Wildcats totaled at least 45 points in consecutive Big 12 games since scoring 55 in back-to-back games against West Virginia and Texas Tech in 2012.

2023 SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

CATS TOPS IN NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS
• K-State is the nation's best in non-offensive touchdowns over the last 24 seasons as it has 129 since 1999, seven more than the next closest team (Alabama – 122).
• Kansas State had three non-offensive scores in 2022: a blocked punt return touchdown against South Dakota by Desmond Purnell, a punt-return touchdown against Missouri by Phillip Brooks and a pick-six at West Virginia by Cincere Mason.

SCORING IN THE THIRD PHASE
• Since 2005 (18 seasons), the Wildcats have a combined 60 kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns, 21 more than second-place Alabama (39) and 26 more than the next closest Big 12 team (Oklahoma State – 34).
• Of the 60 total returns, a nation-leading 31 are on kickoff returns. The next closest team is San Diego State with 20.

"Stack good days on top of good days, and I promise you will be pleased with the process." That has been the message throughout the Chris Klieman era at Kansas State. And let's just say there have been many good days stacked on top of one another.

Four years' worth of stacking reached a milestone in the Klieman era at K-State as the Wildcats captured the 2022 Big 12 Championship – the fourth league title in school history and first since 2012 – and the Wildcats finished the season with a 10-4 record, the 11th double-digit victory campaign in school history. K-State finished No. 9 in the final College Football Playoff Top 25, the Wildcats' second-highest ranking ever in the CFP era and the highest for the final poll. K-State also ranked No. 14 in the final Associated Press Top 25 and AFCA Coaches Poll, the highest final ranking since 2012.

The Wildcats' championship campaign was spearheaded by a school-record three victories over teams that were ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25, culminating with a 31-28 overtime victory over No. 3 TCU in the Big 12 Championship. In fact, since Klieman took over the reins of the K-State program in 2019, the Wildcats are 5-3 against teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25 as they have the most victories over AP Top 10 teams by any Big 12 program over that span.

Kansas State started the 2022 season with a 2-1 record in non-conference play, which included a dominant 40-12 victory over Missouri in which the Tigers did not score a touchdown until a final untimed down at the end of the game. The Wildcats then lost a 17-10 contest to Tulane – which finished with a 12-2 record and a win over USC in the Cotton Bowl – before going to No. 6 Oklahoma. All the Wildcats did in Norman was defeat a top-10 Sooner team for the third time in four seasons, kickstarting a 3-0 start to Big 12 play after wins over Texas Tech and at Iowa State.

After the Wildcats lost at TCU, K-State turned around and shut out No. 9 Oklahoma State, 48-0, which was the largest ever shutout victory by a lower ranked team over an AP Top 10 team. Following a narrow seven-point loss to Texas, the Wildcats closed out the regular season with three-straight victories – at Baylor, at West Virginia and against Kansas – to earn a trip to the Big 12 Championship.

Under Klieman's watch, running back Deuce Vaughn became just the second player in school history to earn back-to-back Consensus All-America honors. Vaughn was one of three players to earn First Team All-America accolades – the most by K-State in a single season since 2003 – and one of five overall All-Americans – the most since 2012.

The other two First Team All-Americans also earned individual awards from the Big 12 coaches as Felix Anudike-Uzomah was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year, while Cooper Beebe was the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. In all, Klieman helped produce 17 All-Big 12 performers, the most by K-State since 2012.

A proven winner with a championship history, Klieman was named the 35th head football coach in Kansas State history on December 10, 2018, and in four seasons he has compiled 30 wins, which are the most in school history by a head coach in their first four years and already the fifth most total wins overall in school history. Included in those 30 overall wins, Klieman has kept the Governor's Cup trophy in Manhattan with four wins over in-state rival KU, has collected 20 Big 12 Conference wins and seen his teams play in three bowl games.

Thanks to his 30 wins in Manhattan, Klieman holds a career head coaching record of 102-33 as his 75.6% winning percentage ranks fourth among current FBS coaches that have led programs for at least 10 seasons, trailing only Clemson's Dabo Swinney (80.5%), Alabama's Nick Saban (80.1%) and James Madison's Curt Cignetti (76.1%).

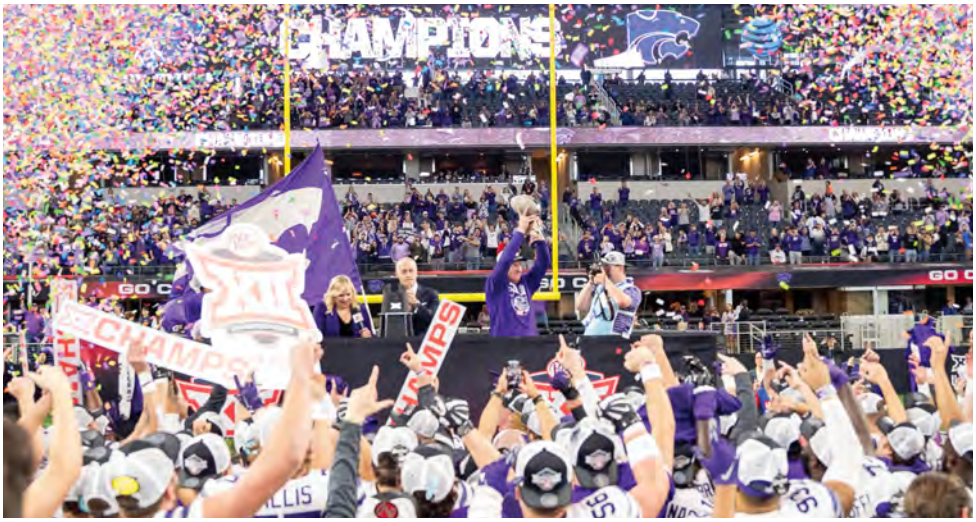

Under Klieman, seven Wildcats have been selected in the NFL Draft, including four this past year. In fact, Anudike-Uzomah was selected in the first round (No. 31) and Julius Brents was picked in the second round (No. 44) of the 2023 NFL Draft, marking the first time in school history two Wildcats were taken within the first 44 picks of an NFL Draft.

Not only has Klieman's tenure produced success on the field, but with his mantra of "how you do one thing is how you do everything" has come success in the classroom. Over Klieman's first four seasons, K-State as a combined 133 Academic All-Big 12 honors – the second most in the conference during that timeframe – which includes a school record 34 in each of the last two seasons. Additionally, the Wildcats boast a pair of National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes under Klieman in Adam Holtorf (2019) and Adrian Martinez (2022).

The 2021 season started with three straight non-conference wins over Stanford, Southern Illinois and Nevada and a top-25 national ranking. Following three Big 12-opening losses to teams that were ranked in the top 10 at some point in 2021, the Wildcats reeled off four-straight Big 12 wins, which included a come-from-behind road triumph at Texas Tech, home victories over TCU and West Virginia, and the program's 13th-straight win over in-state rival KU. The 2021 season culminated with a 42-20 win over LSU in the TaxAct Texas Bowl.

Under Klieman's watch, Vaughn became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history as the sophomore was one of three players in the nation to top 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards on the year, while he ranked in the top 25 nationally in nine different offensive categories. Vaughn was one of 16 Wildcats that earned All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches, which included four first-team members in Anudike-Uzomah, Beebe, kick returner Malik Knowles and defensive back Russ Yeast.

In Klieman's first year at the helm of the K-State program in 2019, the Wildcats managed to win eight games, finish in a tie for third in the Big 12 after being picked ninth in the preseason, knocked off No. 5 Oklahoma at home for the first time since 1996, won at Mississippi State – the Wildcats' first win in 11 tries inside an SEC stadium – kept the Governor's Cup in Manhattan following their 11th-straight win over rival Kansas and quickly got back to bowl eligibility after missing out the year prior. The eight wins by Klieman were the most in school history by a first-year coach and also ranked second nationally among first-year Power 5 head coaches in 2019, trailing only Ohio State's Ryan Day.

A total of 15 Wildcats earned All-Big 12 recognition in 2019, led by Special Teams Player of the Year Joshua Youngblood, who became the first true freshman in Big 12 history to be named Big 12 player of the year on offense, defense or special teams. His three kick returns for touchdowns led the nation in 2019 and sparked key Big 12 wins over Texas Tech and No. 23 Iowa State.

Kansas State jumped out of the gate in Big 12 play in 2020 by winning its first four games, the first time the Wildcats went 4-0 to start conference play in six years and just the sixth time in the 25-year history of the Big 12. One of those victories was at No. 3 Oklahoma, the first road win over a top-five team in school history. The Wildcats were the first team to win two-straight games against the Sooners since 2013 and 2014 (Baylor) and the first to defeat top-five Sooner teams in consecutive years since 2001 and 2002 (Oklahoma State).

However, battling through the COVID-19 pandemic and losing senior starting quarterback Skylar Thompson for the season during the third game of the year, the Wildcats finished at 4-6. K-State was one of just two teams in the nation (Georgia Tech) to start true freshmen at both quarterback and running back in at least seven games in 2020. The running back turned out to be one of the best in the nation as Vaughn was named the True Freshman of the Year by 247Sports, landed on multiple All-America teams and was the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. Vaughn was one of nine Wildcats to earn All-Big 12 honors. The Wildcats also had another stellar year in the classroom in 2020 as they broke their own record from the year prior for Academic All-Big 12 honors with 33, which included 26 first-team members.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Klieman capped his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He tied Jim Tressel (Youngstown State) for the most FCS National Championships as a head coach, while he was a part of seven national championships at NDSU, which was the most in FCS history at the time of his departure.

Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship. North Dakota State also claimed that feat in 2013 when Klieman as the defensive coordinator.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Klieman left Fargo ranking first in NDSU history in winning percentage (.920) and third in victories (69).

Klieman's accomplishments as the Bison head coach came despite losing 23 seniors and welcoming seven new assistant coaches prior to his first season at the helm in 2014. That year, the Bison went 15-1 and won the national championship before going 13-2 with another national championship in 2015, 12-2 with a semifinal appearance in 2016 and 14-1 with a third national title in 2017.

Of Klieman's 69 wins at North Dakota State, 39 (56.5 percent) came over ranked opponents, while he had two wins in two tries over FBS competition – a 34-14 victory at Iowa State in his first game at the helm of NDSU and a 23-21 triumph at 11th-ranked Iowa in 2016. His teams were also stellar in protecting home field as evidenced by his 43-3 home record at NDSU, which includes winning each of his last 19 games at the FargoDome.

The Bison won the Missouri Valley Football Conference each of his five years as head coach and put together a collective 36-4 (90.0 percent) record against conference foes during that time. He was named the Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year in 2017, while he was the 2014 Rawlings Football/American Football Monthly FCS Coach of the Year and the 2018 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

Elevated from defensive coordinator to head coach at NDSU on December 15, 2013, Klieman's defensive units during his two-year run as coordinator each included top-10 rankings in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and passing defense. Highlighting that run were No. 1 rankings in scoring defense in both 2012 and 2013, and total defense in 2012, the latter when he was named the Football Scoop FCS Coordinator of the Year. NDSU also led the nation in scoring defense when he was the defensive backs coach in 2011.

Klieman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northern Iowa, in 1991 and 1992 before being promoted to an assistant coach in 1993. He went on to Western Illinois as an assistant coach from 1994 to 1996 before serving as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 1997 and an assistant coach at Missouri State in 1999.

Klieman then moved on to Division III Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, where he was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2004 before taking over as head coach for the 2005 season. He returned to Northern Iowa in 2006 as an assistant coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator for the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Klieman was a three-time All-Gateway Conference defensive back at Northern Iowa and four-year letterwinner from 1986 to 1990. He graduated from UNI in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health education and a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

Klieman and his wife, Rhonda, are parents of two sons, Devin and Colby, and one daughter, Haley.

 As a player*

Van Malone, a builder of culture who was a successful defensive back in both college and the NFL, enters his fifth season coaching the cornerbacks at Kansas State in 2023. He added the titles of assistant head coach and passing game coordinator prior to the 2020 campaign.

Malone's work in both facets helped the Wildcats win the Big 12 title in 2022 as K-State ranked 10th nationally and second in the Big 12 in interceptions (16), its highest national ranking since 2003 and most interceptions since 2016. K-State also ranked 29th in the country and third in the Big 12 in scoring defense (21.9), marking the first time the Cats had consecutive seasons allowing less than 22.0 points per game since going 13-straight years from 1991 to 2003.

Under Malone's guidance, cornerback Julius Brents ranked 22nd in the country and third in the Big 12 with four interceptions en route to All-Big 12 First Team accolades from the league's coaches. Brents went on to be selected in the second round of the NFL Draft – No. 44 overall – by the Indianapolis Colts, the highest-drafted Wildcat cornerback since Terence Newman went fifth overall in 2003. Opposite Brents, Ekow Boye-Doe was an honorable mention pick in 2022 and went to sign a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs.

On a personal level, the 2022 season also saw Malone honored on two occasions. Prior to the season, Malone was one of 12 coaches in the nation selected for the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches Coalition Academy. Additionally, Malone and K-State quarterback Will Howard earned the Be the Match Champions Award from the Maxwell Football Club after the season for spearheading the Wildcats' effort for the Be the Match national bone marrow donor program.

The 2022 season came on the heels of Malone helping guide a 2021 defensive unit to impressive results as the Wildcats allowed just 21.0 points per game – their best mark since 2003 – to rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12. The turnaround was notable considering the year prior, as the team was ravaged by the COVID-19 pandemic, K-State allowed 32.2 points per game. The 2021 K-State defense also ranked 29th nationally and third in the Big 12 by allowing 344.7 yards per game – its best showing since 2009 – while the Cats surrendered only 129.5 rushing yards per game, their best effort in four seasons.

Brents – who was in his first season at K-State after transferring in from Iowa – earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades from the league's coaches as a 13-game starter. Boye-Doe also started every game and played at an All-Big 12 level as teams only targeted his receiver 40 times in 13 games.

In his first season in Manhattan, Malone helped lead a defense that ranked second in the Big 12 by allowing 21.4 points per game. Thanks in part to Malone's work in the back end, Kansas State ranked second in the nation in third down defense at 28.0% – its best mark since at least 2003 – and second in the Big 12 in passing yards per game (202.9 yards per game) – its best finish in five years.

Malone tutored AJ Parker, who picked up All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades in 2019 despite missing the final five games of the year due to injury. At the time of his injury, Parker was tied for second in the Big 12 and 17th nationally in interceptions.

Malone began to take on more of a holistic approach for the team in 2020 as the assistant head coach while continuing to tutor the Wildcat cornerbacks. K-State corners combined for a pair of interception-return touchdowns in 2020 to tie for seventh in the nation. The first was by Parker, whose 37-yard return touchdown was vital in K-State's 21-14 victory at TCU. Following the game, Parker was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week and the Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week. The second pick-six was by Justin Gardner in the very next game against Kansas. Parker went on to be an undrafted free agent signee by the Detroit Lions and he went on to start seven games during his rookie campaign.

Gardner finished the year tied for fifth in the Big 12 in passes defended (9) and tied for seventh in interceptions (2). Malone also coached up Boye-Doe, who had seen limited time on defense during his career prior to starting this first-career game in K-State's win at No. 3 Oklahoma. Boye-Doe started eight games and finished with seven passes defended to rank 11th in the conference.

Malone came to Manhattan after one year working as a defensive quality control coach at Mississippi State. Prior to working with the Bulldogs, Malone was the defensive coordinator at SMU for three years, including the 2017 season when he was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National FBS Assistant Coach of the Year.

Malone went to SMU after a three-year stint at Oklahoma State where he coached the Cowboys' safeties in 2012 before switching to cornerbacks for the next two seasons. His move to Stillwater came after two years serving as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa. He first coached in the Big 12 from 2006-09 when he worked at Texas A&M, with three of those four years resulting in bowl appearances.

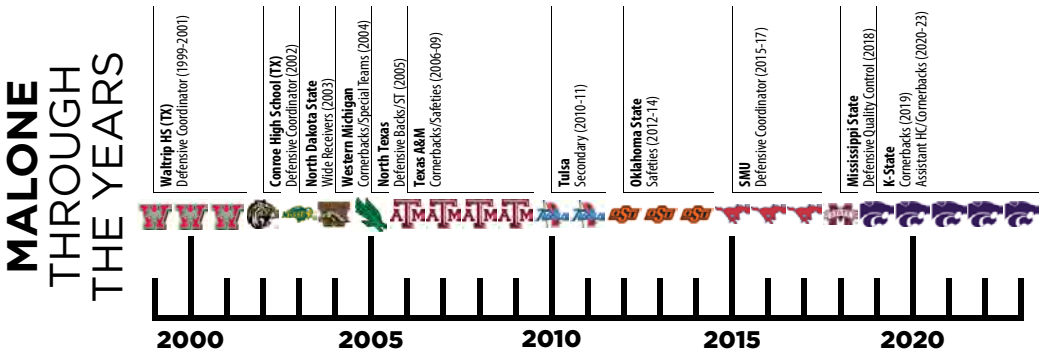

Malone played four seasons in the NFL after being drafted in the second round – the 57th selection overall – by the Detroit Lions in 1994. He was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at Texas, earning All-America honors and All-SWC accolades as a defensive back his senior season.

A native of Houston who majored in education/sports management while at Texas, Malone earned his undergraduate through the NFL's degree completion program and from the University of Houston in 2002.

Malone and his wife, Nedra, have three sons, Van, Vaughn and Vincent.

Spearheading a defense that has been one of the best in the Big 12 over the last two seasons, Joe Klanderman enters his fifth season at Kansas State in 2023 and his fourth as the defensive coordinator. In addition to running the defense, Klanderman also tutors the Wildcat safeties as he has done so since arriving in Manhattan in 2019.

Leading a dynamic shift in defensive philosophy prior to the 2021 season, Klanderman implemented a three-man front for the first time in his career, and the returns paid off as the Wildcats have allowed less than 22.0 points per game in consecutive seasons for the first time since going 13-straight years from 1991 to 2003. K-State ranks second in the Big 12 and 24th nationally, allowing a combined 21.4 points per game over the last two seasons.

In 2022, the defense helped carry K-State to a Big 12 Championship as it ranked in the top 30 nationally in five categories. One of those was a No. 18 showing in fourth down defense (39.4%), which included a key 4th and Goal stop in overtime of the Big 12 Championship just prior to the game-winning field goal during the 31-28 victory over No. 3 TCU. The Cats also ranked 10th in the country in interceptions (16), 14th in turnovers (24), 27th in third down defense (34.0%) and 29th in scoring defense (21.9).

The Wildcats' 24 turnovers gained and 16 passes intercepted were both their highest since 2016, while K-State's No. 10 national ranking in interceptions was the best since the 2003 squad also ranked 10th. K-State's pass efficiency defense of 123.36 was its best mark since 2013 (114.82).

Klanderman presided over a 2022 defense that produced First Team All-American Felix Anudike-Uzomah, who was also named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year. Anudike-Uzomah was one of seven Wildcat defenders to earn All-Big 12 honors, including safety Kobe Savage, who also picked up votes for the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year award.

Anudike-Uzomah was one of three Wildcat defenders selected in the 2023 NFL Draft as he was taken in the first round by Kansas City, while cornerback Julius Brents was selected in the second round (No. 44 overall) by Indianapolis to mark the first time in school history two Wildcats were taken within the first 44 picks of an NFL Draft. Additionally, safety Josh Hayes was selected in the sixth round by Tampa Bay.

In 2021 – the first season of the Wildcats' new-look defense – K-State trimmed 11.2 points per game allowed from the previous season, down to 21.0 points per game to stand as their best mark since 2003 and rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12.

Additionally, the defense allowed its fewest yards per game since 2009 (344.7) to rank third in the Big 12, while its 129.5 rushing yards allowed was its best effort in four seasons. K-State also finished with 90 tackles for loss on the year – its best mark since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history. Overall, Klanderman helped nine Wildcats obtain All-Big 12 honors, including a pair of first-team honorees in Anudike-Uzomah and safety Russ Yeast. Anudike-Uzomah was also the co-Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year. In addition to Yeast, Klanderman also coached safety Jahron McPherson to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades for a second-straight season. Following his lone season in Manhattan, Yeast was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams, seeing time in 15 games during his rookie campaign.

Klanderman oversaw a unit in 2020 that ranked seventh in the nation in interception-return touchdowns and 24th in sacks, the latter being the Wildcats' best mark in five years. The Wildcats had four All-Big 12 performers, including first-team honoree Wyatt Hubert as the defensive end ranked 16th in the nation and third in the Big 12 in sacks. Hubert went on to be drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals.

In his first year in Manhattan, Klanderman helped the 2019 Wildcats rank first in the nation in third down defense at 28.0%, which was the best by K-State since at least 2003. The Wildcats also ranked 15th nationally in first down defense (224) and put together a No. 2 ranking in the Big 12 in pass defense (202.9 yards per game), their best ranking in the conference since in five seasons. Thanks in part to Klanderman's tutelage of the back end of the defense, K-State allowed just 21.4 points per game, their best mark since 2003. Under Klanderman's guidance, Denzel Goolsby earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades, the first Wildcat safety to do so since 2016.

Klanderman came to Manhattan from North Dakota State after helping the Bison win four national titles in his five seasons on staff, which included a perfect 15-0 record in 2018.

Klanderman went to North Dakota State after a 12-year coaching stint at his alma mater, Minnesota State. While in Mankato, Klanderman served as the defensive line coach from 2002 to 2004 before moving to the secondary in 2005. He then took over the reins as defensive coordinator from 2007 to 2013 while coaching the linebackers.

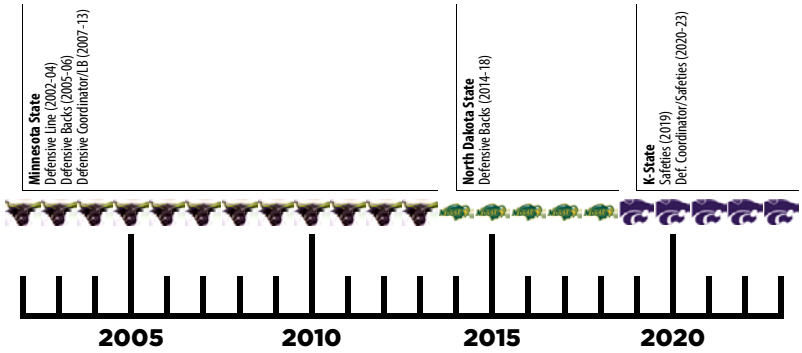

Klanderman was a four-year letterwinner on the defensive line for the Mavericks from 1997 to 2001. A product of Hammond, Wisconsin, Klanderman was named an Academic All-Region honoree following his senior season in 2001.

A 2001 graduate from Minnesota State with a degree in social studies, Klanderman also obtained his master's degree in sports administration from MSU in 2004.

Klanderman and his wife, Amanda, are the parents of four children, Elle, Corryn, Jarrett and James.

 As a player*

A 2012 Heisman Trophy finalist and one of the greatest quarterbacks to ever don a Kansas State uniform, Collin Klein enters his seventh season coaching the K-State quarterbacks in 2023 and his second as the offensive coordinator.

His first full season as offensive coordinator was a success as he guided an offense that helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 title. In the process, Klein's unit ranked in the top 10 in school history in 11 categories, including ranking second in offensive yards (5,863) and plays (958), fourth in rushing yards (2,916) and fifth in yards per game (418.8).

The Cats ranked 15th in the country in rushing yards per game (208.3), their highest national ranking since placing ninth in 2003. Additionally, K-State's 210.5 passing yards per game and 421.6 total yards per game were the most since 2014, while its 32.3 points per game was the most by Wildcat squad since 2017. K-State also ranked 12th nationally and tops in the Big 12 in both fewest interceptions thrown (6) and turnovers lost (12).

Klein directed an offense that hit those marks despite starting two different quarterbacks throughout the season in Adrian Martinez and Will Howard. The duo helped K-State set the school record for lowest interception percentage (1.54%), rank fourth in completions (242), sixth in passing yards (2,947) and seventh in passing touchdowns (21). Martinez set the school record for lowest interception percentage by a player in school history (0.54%), while Howard had the seventh-best season passing efficiency ever by a Wildcat (149.6).

The low interceptions in 2022 is the reoccurring theme of Klein's time tutoring the Wildcat quarterbacks. Since he took over coaching the position prior to the 2017 season, K-State has thrown only 43 interceptions (7.16 per season and 0.57 per game). That mark is the lowest in the Big 12 (second is Oklahoma with 47) and tied for 12th in the nation.

With Klein at the controls, running back Deuce Vaughn became the second player in school history to twice earn Consensus All-America honors, while offensive lineman Cooper Beebe also earned First Team All-America accolades. The pair were two of eight Wildcat offensive players that earned All-Big 12 honors. Klein guided Martinez to honorable mention accolades, while he also picked up votes for the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year award.

Klein, who is in his ninth season overall on the coaching staff, was named the offensive coordinator after conducting one of the best offensive output in school bowl history as the interim offensive coordinator in the Texas Bowl win over LSU to conclude the 2021 season. The Cats produced 42 points, their highest output of the season and the third-highest scoring mark in K-State bowl history, while their 442 yards of offense was the second-highest showing of the year and ranked fifth in school bowl history.

The Texas Bowl victory was the final chapter in the career of Skylar Thompson, who left as one of the best quarterbacks in school history. Under Klein's guidance, Thompson earned 24 career wins as a starting quarterback – the most among all K-State signal callers since at least 1990 – while he was the only player in school history with 6,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a career. Thompson also set the school record for lowest career interception percentage (1.81%), ranked second in passing touchdowns (42), passing yards (7,134), completions (552) and total offense (8,221), while he ranked in the top 10 in 10 other categories.

Battling through a pair of injuries that saw him miss three games in 2021, Thompson was still able to set K-State's single-season record for completion percentage (69.53%), rank second in passing efficiency (159.3), third in passing yards per attempt (9.07) and eighth in passing yards per game (211.3). His performance in the Texas Bowl earned him MVP honors as he threw for 259 yards and a career-high tying three touchdowns.

After the season, Thompson was selected by the Miami Dolphins in the NFL Draft and played in eight games with three starts, including a start in the Wild Card Round of the AFC Playoffs.

In 2019, Klein's first year under head coach Chris Klieman, he was able to help implement a new offense and work with Thompson as the Wildcats were one of the top offensive units in the Big 12. Under Klein, Thompson earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades as he rushed for 11 touchdowns on the year to tie for eighth nationally among quarterbacks, including seven over a two-game stretch in wins over No. 5 Oklahoma and Kansas.

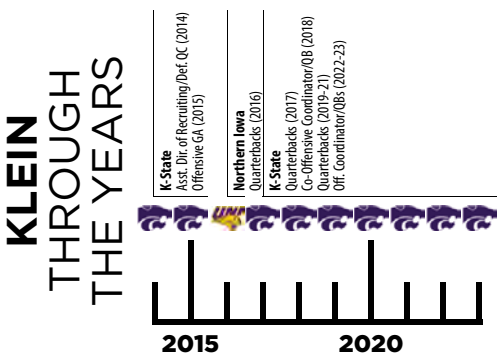

Klein entered the coaching profession as an assistant director of recruiting and quality control coach at K-State in 2014 before taking over as an offensive graduate assistant the following year. He then went to UNI to coach the quarterbacks for one season before returning to K-State in 2017.

The 2012 Johnny Unitas Award winner, Klein was the first quarterback from a Power 5 school since 1998 to rush for at least 20 touchdowns and pass for 10 scores in consecutive seasons by doing so in 2011 and 2012.

Klein led the Wildcats to a combined 21-5 record as the starting quarterback in 2011 and 2012, which culminated with a No. 1 national ranking, Big 12 Championship and Fiesta Bowl berth in 2012. He is a member of K-State Football's Ring of Honor as part of the Class of 2022.

Klein obtained his undergraduate degree from K-State in December 2011 in business financial services and controllership, while he received his master's degree in academic advising in December 2019. He and his wife Shalin Spani, a former Wildcat women's basketball player. The couple has three sons, Beric, Rhett and Trek, and one daughter, Briar.

 As a player*

A 28-year coaching veteran with a versatile background of coaching offensive skill positions, Brian Anderson is in his fifth season as K-State's running backs coach in 2023.

Anderson's running backs have found success in each of his first four seasons in Manhattan, most notably Deuce Vaughn, who became just the second player in school history to earn consecutive Consensus All-America honors. All Vaughn did during his three-year career was finish second in school history in career rushing yards (3,604) in addition to setting the school records for receptions (116) and receiving yards (1,280) by a running back. Vaughn also finished in the top 10 in K-State history in 11 other career categories, and he went on to be selected in the 2023 NFL Draft by Dallas.

Under the guidance of Anderson, Vaughn became just the third player in school history with multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons as he went for 1,558 yards in 2022 en route to First Team All-America honors from the AFCA, The Athletic, ESPN, FOX Sports and Sporting News. Vaughn, who finished the season ranking in the top 10 in school history in seven categories, was named the 2022 Big 12 Championship MVP after rushing for 130 yards in K-State's 31-28 overtime upset over No. 3 TCU.

Vaughn wasn't the only Anderson protégé to make an impact in 2022 as redshirt freshman DJ Giddens rushed for 518 yards and six touchdowns. Giddens finished third in school history in rushing yards by a freshman and picked up votes for the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year award.

Anderson's running backs helped the Wildcat offense account for 208.3 rushing yards per game to rank 15th in the nation, K-State's best ranking since 2003. That figure also ranked third in school history, while the Wildcats' 2,916 total rushing yards ranked fourth and 32 rushing touchdowns ranked 10th. The running backs also helped K-State rank second in school history in total offensive yards (5,863), fifth in yards per game (418.8) and ninth in yards per play (6.12).

As a sophomore in 2021, Vaughn became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history as he ranked fourth nationally in total touchdowns (22), fifth in points per game (10.2), fifth in yards from scrimmage per game (144.0), eighth in rushing touchdowns (18) and ninth in rushing yards per game (108.0). Vaughn picked up First Team All-America honors from the Associated Press and Sporting News, and he was a second-team pick by CBS Sports, the AFCA and USA TODAY.

Vaughn and the rest of Anderson's backs helped the 2021 K-State offense rank third in school history with 6.3 yards per play and sixth with 4.83 rushing yards per attempt, while they tied for second in the Big 12 with 29 rushing touchdowns.

Vaughn was one of the most electrifying true freshmen in the nation in 2020 thanks to Anderson's teachings, which was impressive considering a condensed fall camp due COVID-19 protocols. Vaughn totaled 1,221 all-purpose yards – including 642 yards on the ground – in 10 games with nine total touchdowns. Vaughn was named the 247Sports True Freshman of the Year, a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and The Athletic, an Honorable Mention All-American by Phil Steele and the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches.

Under Anderson, Vaughn, who broke the K-State freshman records for rushing yards, yards from scrimmage (1,076) and all-purpose yards, was the first Wildcat true freshman to earn First or Second Team All-Big 12 honors on offense in the Big 12 era.

Anderson tutored a running back group in 2019 that helped the Wildcats finish fourth in the Big 12 in rushing offense (178.0 yards per game) and third in the league in rushing touchdowns (29). Due to its work on the ground, K-State led the nation in red-zone offense at 96.2% – the best mark by the Wildcats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004. K-State also ranked ninth in the nation in time of possession at 33:27, the highest by a Wildcat team since 2012.

Not only did Anderson have to teach the running back group a new offense, he had to do so with zero scholarship running backs on the roster when he arrived. However, Anderson and the Wildcats benefited from a pair of graduate transfers in James Gilbert and Jordon Brown, the former who picked up All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades.

Anderson came to K-State from Illinois State, where he coached the wide receivers in 2018. A bulk of Anderson's career has been under Jerry Kill, first at Southern Illinois from 2001-07 and then at Northern Illinois from 2008-10 before joining him in Minnesota for the 2011-16 seasons.

Prior to his stint in Minneapolis, Anderson coached tight ends at Northern Illinois for three years after tutoring the wide receivers and kick returners at Southern Illinois the previous seven seasons.

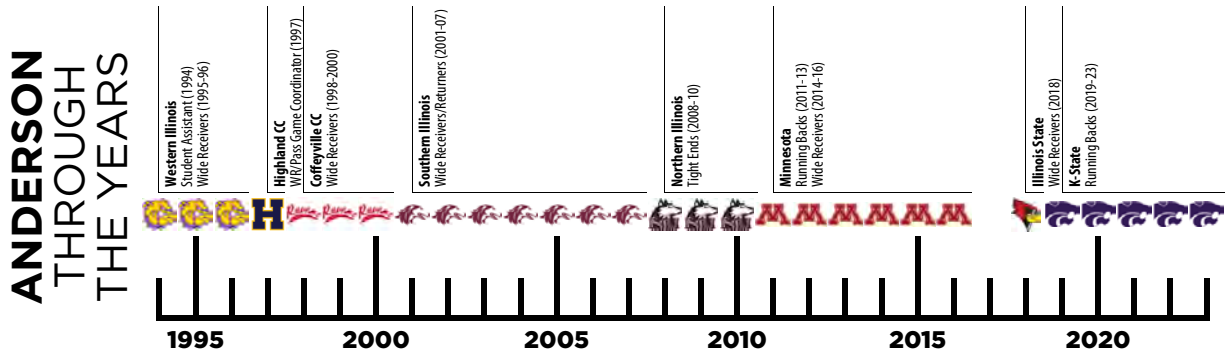

Anderson has ties to the state of Kansas that go back to the late 1990s when he coached at Coffeyville Community College from 1997-2000, where three of his student-athletes went on to play in the NFL. He also coached two seasons at Highland Community College.

Anderson began his coaching career at Western Illinois, serving as a student assistant in 1994, before coaching wide receivers in 1995-96. His playing career began at Ellsworth Community College before finishing his career at Western Illinois.

Anderson holds a bachelor's degree from Western Illinois, and he and his wife, Kerri, have a daughter Annabelle.

 As a player*

Brian Lepak, an intelligent young coach with stops at two other Power 5 schools, is in his second season as K-State's tight ends coach and his third year overall in Manhattan in 2023.

Lepak hit the ground running during his first year as a full-time coach for the Wildcats as he tutored tight end Ben Sinnott to All-Big 12 First Team accolades. Sinnott averaged 14.4 yards per catch to rank fourth nationally and first in the Big 12 among tight ends, while his 447 receiving yards ranked sixth in school history by a tight end and his 31 receptions tied for eighth.

The K-State fullbacks and tight ends helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 title thanks to an offensive unit that ranked in the top 10 in school history in 11 categories, including ranking second in offensive yards (5,863) and plays (958), fourth in rushing yards (2,916) and fifth in yards per game (418.8).

The Wildcats ranked 15th in the country in rushing yards per game (208.3), their highest national ranking since placing ninth in 2003. Additionally, K-State's 210.5 passing yards per game and 421.6 total yards per game were the most since the 2014 season.

Lepak came to K-State prior to the 2021 season as a Senior Offensive Quality Control Coach, spending a bulk of the 2021 season breaking down future opponents' tendencies and potential player matchups for the coaching staff, and he assisted with the early implementation of the game plan each week. Lepak then coached the Wildcat fullbacks and tight ends in K-State's victory over LSU in the Texas Bowl, seeing four of his pupils catch passes, including two by senior tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe that went for 29 yards.

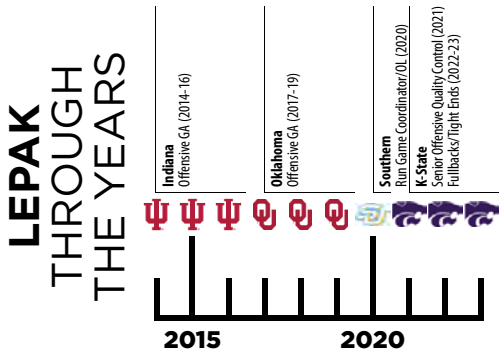

Prior to coming to Manhattan, Lepak served one year as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Southern. During his lone season in Baton Rouge, Lepak helped the Jaguars earn a top-20 final ranking during the 2021 spring season. Under Lepak's watch, all five Southern offensive linemen earned All-SWAC honors, including three first-team performers. Southern finished the COVID-shortened spring season with a 5-1 record.

Lepak spent the previous three seasons as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. While on the Sooner staff, Lepak assisted with the offensive line that helped pave the way for multiple national award winners – including two Heisman trophy winners – and helped lead the team to three consecutive Big 12 Championships and College Football Playoff appearances. In 2018, the offensive line was awarded the Joe Moore Award for the nation's most outstanding offensive line unit. He went to Oklahoma after spending the 2014 through 2016 seasons as a graduate assistant at Indiana.

A native of Claremore, Oklahoma, Lepak was an offensive lineman for two seasons at Colorado State before transferring to Oklahoma where he spent three seasons, including the 2010 Big 12 Championship team, while he was an Academic All-American that year.

After completing his playing career, Lepak was awarded the Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholar Award and attended law school at the University of Oklahoma College of Law where he was a member of the Oklahoma Law Review. He graduated in 2014 and was admitted to the Oklahoma Bar Association the same year. In addition to his law degree, he has dual degrees in Accounting and Finance from the OU Price College of Business where he was the Outstanding Senior in Accounting.

Lepak and his wife, Colleen, have three children, Thomas, Penelope and Luke.

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE

2019 Frisco Bowl.....Kent State

A native Kansan and experienced FBS assistant coach, Matthew Middleton is in his first season at Kansas State coaching the wide receivers in 2023.

Middleton, a 15-year coaching veteran, comes to Manhattan after spending the previous five seasons as the wide receivers coach at Kent State. A native of Kansas City, Kansas and graduate of Bonner Springs High School, Middleton played football at Ottawa University and, immediately upon graduation, coached the Braves' wide receivers for one season.

In five seasons at Kent State, Middleton guided wide receivers to six all-conference selections, including four first-team honors. In 2022, wide receiver Dante Cephas earned his second All-MAC First Team designation, while Devontez Walker also picked up first-team honors as Kent State passed for more than 2,500 yards for the fourth time in Middleton's five seasons on staff. In addition to the two receivers, Middleton also coached Ja'Shawun Poke to All-MAC Second Team honors as a kick returner.

Under Middleton, Cephas finished the 2022 season ranked second in the MAC by averaging 82.7 yards per game. Cephas' best came was a school record 246-yard performance against Ohio, which was just one yard shy of the top receiving mark in the nation in 2022. In his first season as a starter, Walker set the program record with 11 touchdown catches to rank seventh in the country, and his 921 receiving yards ranked second in the conference and stood as the third-most in program history. He also finished amongst MAC leaders in receptions (58) and yards per catch (15.9).

In 2021, the Golden Flashes set a school record for passing offense (3,435 yards) and ranked fourth in the nation in total offense (493.7 yards per game). Cephas was named to the All-MAC First Team after totaling 1,240 yards to rank 16th in the nation to go along with nine touchdowns. Kent State won the MAC East Division, played in the MAC Championship and the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

In the shortened 2020 campaign, Middleton coached junior wide receiver Isaiah McKoy to All-MAC First Team honors after finishing third in the conference in yards per catch (18.1) and yards per game (113.0). McKoy topped 100 yards in three of four games and had at least one touchdown in all four games.

In 2019, the Golden Flashes averaged 405.6 yards per game (third in program history) and logged 2,849 passing yards (second in program history) while totaling 42 touchdowns (fifth). Kent State eclipsed 50 points in the program's first-ever bowl win, a 51-41 victory over Utah State in the Frisco Bowl. Middleton saw two of his pupils earn All-MAC honors in McKoy and Mike Carrigan. McKoy led the Flashes with 56 receptions, 872 yards and eight touchdowns, cracking the top-10 in program history in all three categories and leading the MAC in yards per game and touchdowns. Carrigan caught 44 passes for 570 yards and five touchdowns.

In his first year in Kent in 2018, Middleton's unit saw an immediate jump in production from the previous season as Antwan Dixon hauled in 52 receptions – the ninth most in a single season in program history – and Carrigan produced a team-leading 597 receiving yards and five touchdowns.

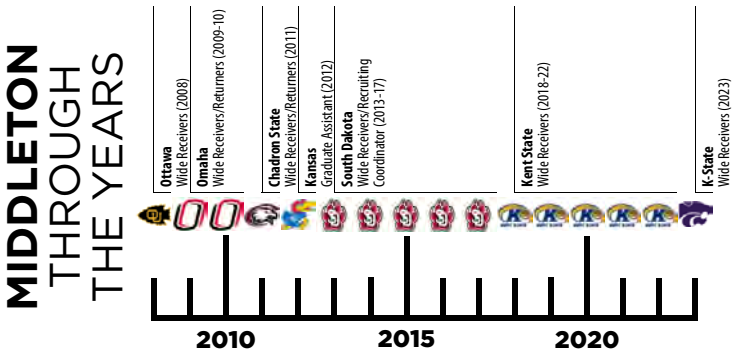

Middleton went to Kent State after serving as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at South Dakota the previous three seasons. In 2017, the Coyotes advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs thanks to an average of 333.2 passing yards per game to rank sixth in the FCS.

After his lone season at Ottawa in 2008, Middleton coached the wide receivers and returners for two seasons at Omaha where he worked alongside current K-State offensive line coach Conor Riley. He then coached the same two positions at Division II Chadron State in 2011 and served as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 2012 before moving on to South Dakota.

Working concurrently with his collegiate jobs, Middleton also earned three Bill Walsh Minority Internships with NFL teams during the early part of training camp, working with the Chicago Bears (July 2015), Minnesota Vikings (July 2016) and Detroit Lions (July 2020).

Middleton picked up four all-conference honors – including two in 2006 as a receiver and a returner – at Ottawa as he left the program as the school's all-time leader with 159 career receptions. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Ottawa in 2008 and went on to obtain a master's degree in recreation administration from the University of Nebraska-Omaha in 2012.

Middleton and his wife, Jenna, have two sons, Evan and Elijah, and two daughters, Bria and Cora.

 As a player*

A developer of young talent who has consistently churned out quality offensive lines, Conor Riley enters his fifth season at Kansas State in 2023.

Over his first four years in Manhattan, Riley has produced 11 All-Big 12 honorees, which includes first-team selection Cooper Beebe in both 2021 and 2022. Riley also coached Beebe to multiple All-America honors in 2022, highlighted by first-team designations from The Athletic, ESPN, FOX Sports and Sporting News. Beebe was named the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2022 and was joined on the All-Big 12 teams by honorable mention picks Hayden Gillum and KT Leveston.

The three All-Big 12 picks – in addition to 14-game starter Christian Duffie and 13-game starter Hadley Panzer – helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 title as the offense rushed for 208.3 yards per game to rank 15th in the country, the third-best mark in school history and highest national ranking since 2003. Behind Riley's line, the Wildcats ranked second in school history in total offensive yards (5,863), third in rushing yards per carry (5.12), fourth in total rushing yards (2,916), fifth in total yards per game (418.8), ninth in yards per play (6.12) and 10th in rushing touchdowns (32).

Not only was the 2022 offensive line proficient in the running game, but the Wildcats also ranked highly in sacks allowed, placing third in the Big 12 by allowing 1.50 sacks per game. In fact, all four of Riley's lines have allowed fewer than 2.0 sacks per game, the first four-year stretch by the Wildcats since 1997-2000. K-State is the only Big 12 team to currently hold a streak of at least four years allowing less than 2.0 sacks per game each season, and the Wildcats are only one of 10 FBS programs to lay that claim.

The 2021 season also saw Riley guide Beebe to All-Big 12 First Team honors, while he picked up votes for the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year award. Additionally, Noah Johnson and Josh Rivas earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades as the Wildcats ranked third in school history with 6.3 yards per play and sixth with 4.83 rushing yards per attempt.

Additionally, K-State tied for second in the Big 12 with 29 rushing touchdowns, just one behind the leader and two away from entering the school's top-10 list. The Wildcats finished the 2021 season with 362.3 yards of total offense per game – their best mark since 2017 – while they ranked fifth in the league by allowing 1.85 sacks per game.

Riley hit the ground running in 2019 as he tutored four linemen that earned All-Big 12 honors from either the league's coaches or Associated Press, the most by the Wildcats since 2012. The group was headlined by seniors Scott Frantz (second team), Adam Holtorf (honorable mention) and Nick Kaltmayer (honorable mention), while Rivas, then a sophomore, was a first-team performer by the Associated Press.

The Wildcat line paved the way for 178.0 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the Big 12, while K-State's 29 rushing touchdowns were the third most in the league. Thanks in large part to Riley's guidance of the line, K-State led the nation in red zone offense (96.2%) – the best mark by the Cats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004. Kansas State also ranked ninth in the country and first in the Big 12 in time of possession (33:27), its best figure since 2011.

Coming into the 2020 season with no returning starters from the previous campaign – and without any spring practices and limited preseason work due to the COVID-19 pandemic – Riley brought a new line together throughout the year and turned it into one of the top units in the Big 12 toward the end of the season. The Wildcats had their two best rushing outputs in the final two games, totaling 256 yards at Baylor and 274 yards against Texas, each of which ranked in the top 10 of the Big 12 for total rushing yards in a conference game during the 2020 season.

Protecting a true freshman starting quarterback for most of the season, the Wildcats' front line ranked 22nd in the nation and second in the Big 12 in sacks allowed (1.40 sacks per game) and helped K-State lead the league and rank fourth nationally in red zone offense (93.9%). Spearheading the Wildcat line was a walk-on turned team captain in Johnson, who was an All-Big 12 Second Team honoree by the league's coaches and also earned votes for the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year award.

Riley came to Manhattan from North Dakota State where he coached the previous six seasons – including the final five tutoring the offensive line under head coach Chris Klieman – helping NDSU win five national championships during his tenure.

Each of Riley's six years on the NDSU staff, the Bison averaged at least 235 rushing yards per game and ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing. Riley's lines also finished highly in fewest sacks allowed, ranking 10th in 2016 and eighth in 2018.

Riley spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the offensive line coach at Sacramento State. Prior to working on the west coast, he was the offensive line coach and running game coordinator at Omaha from 2007 to 2010.

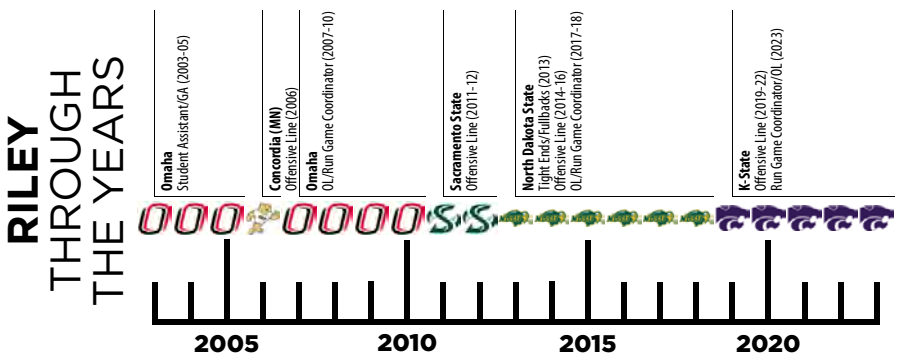

A 2003 graduate of University of Nebraska Omaha, Riley began his collegiate coaching career at UNO as a student and graduate assistant from 2003 to 2005. He left his alma mater to become the offensive line coach at Concordia University-St. Paul in 2006.

The Omaha native began his collegiate playing career at the U.S. Air Force Academy, then transferred to Kansas before heading to UNO in 1999.

He and his wife, Christy, are the parents of two daughters, Cate and Claire.

 As a player*

A veteran coach with ties to the Midwest and more than 30 years of coaching experience, Steve Stanard is in his fourth season at Kansas State in 2023 as the program's linebackers coach.

Stanard helped K-State capture the 2022 Big 12 Championship by tutoring a dynamic group of linebackers who were a main cog for one of the best defenses in the nation. K-State finished in the top 30 nationally in five categories, ranking 10th in interceptions (16), 14th in total turnovers (24), 18th in fourth down defense (39.4%), 27th in third down defense (34.0%) and 29th in scoring defense (21.9). Of the 16 interceptions by the Wildcats in 2022, five came from linebackers to stand as the most by the unit since 1998.

K-State's 24 turnovers gained and 16 passes intercepted were both their highest since 2016, while its No. 10 national ranking in interceptions was the best since the 2003. Additionally, Kansas State's pass efficiency defense of 123.36 was its best mark since 2013 (114.82).

Thanks to the play of Stanard's linebackers, the Wildcats have allowed less than 22.0 points per game in consecutive seasons for the first time since going 13-straight years from 1991 to 2003. K-State ranks second in the Big 12 and 24th nationally by allowing a combined 21.4 points per game over the last two seasons.

For a second-straight season, two of Stanard's pupils earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades in Austin Moore and Daniel Green. Moore led the team with 87 tackles in 2022, while Green enters the 2023 season needing 17 solo tackles to enter the school's career top-10 list.

The 2021 season also saw Stanard coach two All-Big 12 Honorable Mention picks as Green (89) and senior Cody Fletcher (75) ranked first and second on the team in tackles. Green, who ranked 22nd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 in solo tackles per game (5.3), also led the Wildcats with 16.0 tackles for loss. His 6.85 tackles per game average ranked eighth in the Big 12 and was the highest ranking by a Wildcat since 2017.

Thanks in part to the linebacking duo, the Wildcats saw their points allowed per game average go from 32.2 in 2020 to 21.0 in 2021 – K-State's best mark since 2003 – to rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12. The defense allowed its fewest yards per game since 2009 (344.7) to rank third in the Big 12, while the Wildcats' surrendered only 129.5 rushing yards per game to stand as their best mark in four years. Additionally, K-State racked up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

In his first year in Manhattan, Stanard saw three of his linebackers rank in the top five on the team in tackles, and the Wildcats ranked 24th nationally in sacks to stand as K-State's best mark in five seasons. One of his linebackers, Elijah Sullivan, earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades.

Stanard, who has 20-seasons worth of experience as a defensive coordinator, came to K-State after spending the previous three years as the defensive ends coach at Syracuse. He began his coaching career at Nebraska following his playing days with the Huskers, and he crossed paths with head coach Chris Klieman at North Dakota State in 2012 and 2013 when Stanard tutored the Bison linebackers.

Prior to joining the Syracuse staff, Stanard served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Wyoming from 2014 to 2016. In 2015, Stanard protégé Logan Wilson led all conference rookies in tackles per game (6.7) and was voted the 2016 Mountain West Freshman of the Year. Wilson went on to be selected in the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

Stanard went to Wyoming from NDSU as he helped the Bison earn a 29-1 record and capture consecutive FCS national titles. His work with the linebackers contributed to the Bison boasting the nation's top-ranked scoring defense in both 2012 (11.5 points per game) and 2013 (11.3 points per game). In 2013, Stanard coached Grant Olson, who was named an All-American by the Associated Press.

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes running defenses at six schools. In addition to his three years running the Wyoming defense, he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07), three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the defensive coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95).

Stanard also served as the defensive line coach at Ohio in 2008, while he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers at New Mexico State from 1997 to 1999 before being named the Aggies' defensive coordinator in 2000.

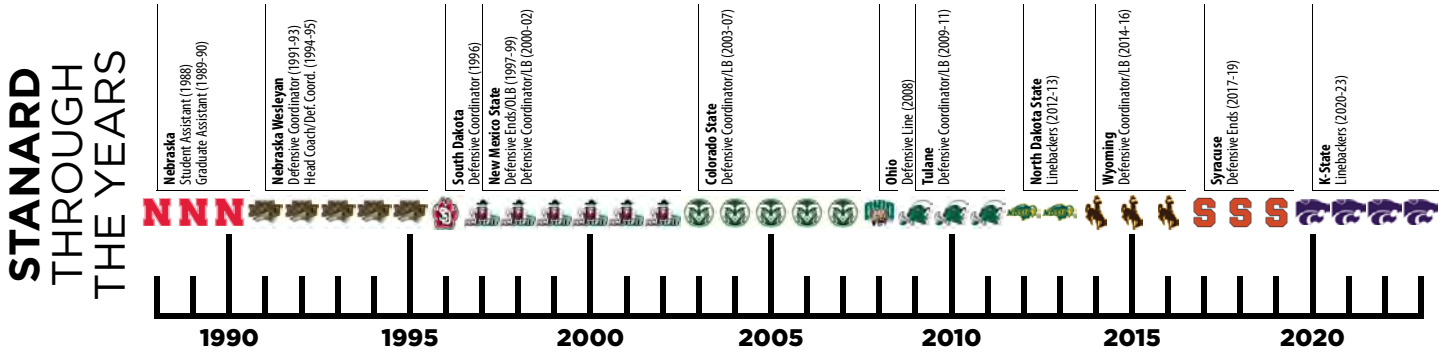

Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska. After a three-year stint with the Huskers, Stanard received his first full-time coaching job in 1991 at Nebraska Wesleyan. He served as the school's defensive coordinator, and later, head coach and assistant athletic director.

Stanard earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989 and later obtained his M.B.A. from the school in 1995.

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children – Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

 As a player*

Mike Tuiasosopo, a veteran coach with over 30 years of experience, is in his fifth season at Kansas State coaching the defensive tackles in 2023.

Tuiasosopo has aided in the transition of the defense from a four-down alignment to a three-down front beginning with the 2021 season, a shift that has proven to be a successful one as the Wildcats have allowed just 21.4 points per game over the last two years to rank second in the Big 12 and 24th nationally. K-State has surrendered less than 22.0 points per game each of the last two seasons, the first time the Wildcats have done so in consecutive seasons since going 13-straight years from 1991 to 2003.

Thanks in part to Tuiasosopo's coaching, the defense helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 Championship as they ranked in the top 30 nationally in five categories, including a No. 18 ranking in fourth down defense (39.4%). One of the biggest fourth-down stops of the year came from a Tuiasosopo pupil in Eli Huggins, who assisted on a 4th and Goal stop in overtime of the Big 12 Championship just prior to the game-winning field goal during the 31-28 victory over No. 3 TCU. Tuiasosopo coached Huggins to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades in both 2021 and 2022.

Tuiasosopo's linemen also helped the 2022 Wildcats rank 14th nationally in total turnovers (24), 27th in third down defense (34.0%) and 29th in scoring defense (21.9).

The 2021 season saw the Wildcats cut 11.2 points per game allowed off their total from the previous year as K-State's 21.0 points per game surrendered ranked 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12, and it was K-State's best mark since 2003. K-State also ranked 29th in the nation and third in the Big 12 by allowing 344.7 yards per game – its best effort since 2009 – while the Wildcats allowed only 129.5 rushing yards per game to stand as their best mark in four seasons. The Wildcat defensive tackles also helped K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Tuiasosopo's interior defensive line group in 2021 was led by Huggins, who set a career best with 3.0 sacks and tied his career best with 6.0 tackles for loss. Graduate transfer defensive tackle Timmy Horne enjoyed a productive year under Tuiasosopo before signing a rookie free agent contract with the Falcons. Horne made the team out of training camp and played in all 17 games during his rookie season of 2022.

In his first season in 2019, Tuiasosopo helped the Wildcats rank second in the nation in third-down defense (28.0%) – their lowest mark since at least 2003 – and surrender only 368.4 yards per game – the best by a K-State defense since 2013. Additionally, K-State allowed its fewest points per game – 21.4 – since 2003.

The defense was led in part by a duo of starting senior defensive tackles coached by Tuiasosopo, Trey Dishon and Jordan Mittie. Dishon, who was a four-year starter, set career highs in tackles (30) and tackles for loss (5.0), while he tied his career high in sacks (3.0). Mittie, a former graduate transfer, carded 33 tackles and tied a career high with 5.5 TFLs.

In year two, Tuiasosopo's defensive tackles helped the Wildcats rank fourth in the Big 12 and 24th in the nation sacks, K-State's best mark in five years. Senior Drew Wiley, who was starting for the first time in his career, earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors after tying for 10th in the Big 12 in sacks (4.5) and 14th in TFLs (9.0). Those two totals were the most by a Wildcat interior defensive lineman since 2017.

Tuiasosopo came to Manhattan after serving one season at UTEP. Prior to his time in El Paso, he served as the special teams quality control assistant at USC in 2017, which claimed the Pac-12 Conference title for the first time in nine years. USC was the latest of several stops throughout the Pac-10/12 as he coached the outside linebackers and special teams at UCLA in 2014 after tutoring the defensive line at Colorado in 2011 and 2012, while he coached the defensive tackles at Arizona from 2004 to 2010. Tuiasosopo spent the 2003 season at Utah where he coached the defensive tackles.

Tuiasosopo got his start in coaching in 1990 and 1991 when he led the defensive line and special teams at Montclair Academy in Van Nuys, California. He then went on to become a GA at Pacific in 1991 and 1992, while he was the head coach at Berkley High School in 1993 and 1994. He earned his first full-time job collegiate job at Utah State in 1996, coaching four seasons for the Aggies. Tuiasosopo moved from Utah State to Nevada in 2000, coaching three seasons for the Wolfpack.

Tuiasosopo lettered four years at Pacific Lutheran (1985-88), starting his final three years. He comes from a football-rich family tradition as his uncle, Bob Apisa, was a two-time All-American fullback at Michigan State and was drafted by Green Bay in 1968. A cousin, Manu Tuiasosopo, was the No. 18 overall pick by Seattle in the 1979 NFL Draft.

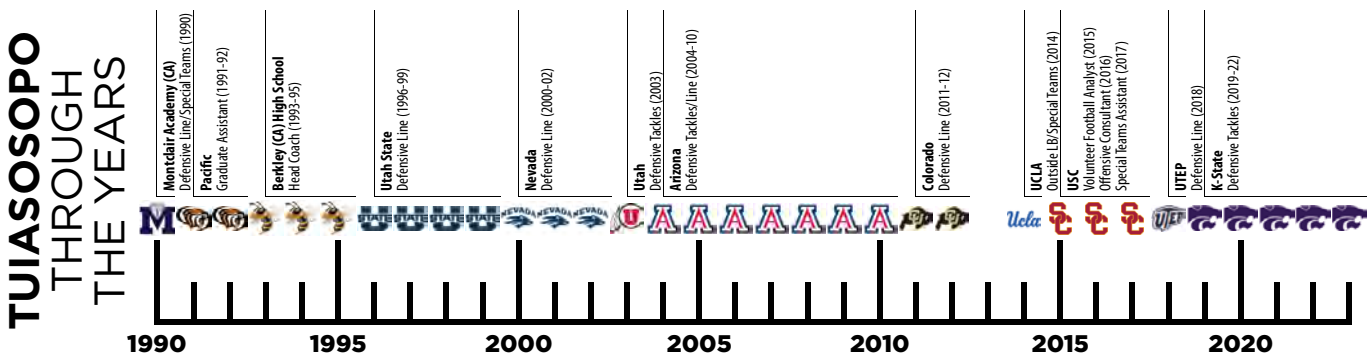

One of Tuiasosopo's younger brothers, Navy, played for both the Los Angeles Rams and St. Louis Cardinals. Another younger sibling, Titus, played for USC from 1988 to 1991. Two more of Tuiasosopo's cousins played collegiately and in the NFL – John Tautolo (offensive line, UCLA/New York Giants, New England) and Terry Tautolo (linebacker, UCLA/Philadelphia, Detroit, San Francisco, Miami). His nephew, Marques Tuiasosopo, was a quarterback at Washington and was drafted by the Oakland Raiders. Marques is currently the offensive coordinator at Rice.

Tuiasosopo graduated from Pacific Lutheran with a degree in physical education and health in 1989, while he earned his master's degree from Pacific in Education Administration Credentials in 1992.

Tuiasosopo and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Lanea, Maya, Titus and Luke. Titus is a defensive tackle for the Wildcats.

Buddy Wyatt, a respected defensive line coach who has worked in the Big 12, SEC, Big Ten and American Athletic Conference during his more than 30 years in the profession, is in his fifth season as Kansas State's defensive ends coach in 2023.

Wyatt's defensive ends in 2022 were headlined by Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Felix Anudike-Uzomah, who earned All-Big 12 First Team honors each of the last two seasons of his career. Wyatt helped Anudike-Uzomah tie for fourth in K-State history in career forced fumbles (8) and sixth in career sacks (20.5). Anudike-Uzomah also picked up multiple All-American designations – including a first-team honor from USA TODAY – and was a finalist for the Ted Hendrick Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy. He was selected in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft by Kansas City, the Wildcats' first first-round draft pick since 2009. Along with Anudike-Uzomah, Wyatt tutored breakout player Brenan Mott, who ranked sixth in the Big 12 with 6.0 sacks.

The duo was part of a position group led by Wyatt that helped K-State rank in the top 30 nationally in five categories. One of those was scoring defense, as Wyatt assisted in K-State's transition from a four-down alignment to a three-man front prior to the 2021 season. Over the past two years, K-State ranks 24th in the country and second in the Big 12 by allowing a combined 21.4 points per game as the Wildcats have put together consecutive seasons of less than 22.0 points allowed per game for the first time since a 13-year streak from 1991 to 2003.

In 2021, Wyatt and his defensive ends helped K-State rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 by allowing just 21.0 points per game – 11.2 less than the year prior – which was the Wildcats' best effort since 2003. K-State also only permitted 344.7 total yards per game – its best mark since 2009 – to rank third in the Big 12 and 29th in the nation. That effort included just 129.5 yards allowed on the ground, the fewest by the Wildcats in four seasons.

The Wildcat defensive ends helped K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Wyatt coached Anudike-Uzomah, then a sophomore, to All-America honors, while he was the co-Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree. Anudike-Uzomah, who also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, tied for the national lead in forced fumbles per game (0.46), while he ranked 11th nationally and second in the Big 12 in sacks per game (0.85). His 11.0 total sacks tied for fifth in school history, and his six forced fumbles tied the school record. Opposite Anudike-Uzomah, Wyatt tutored Nate Matlack, who earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year award as he played in every game with starts in the final three contests and totaled 3.5 sacks.

Arriving at K-State for the 2019 season, Wyatt went right to work with two dynamic ends, coaching senior Reggie Walker to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades and sophomore Wyatt Hubert to All-Big 12 First Team honors. Under Wyatt, Hubert also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year awards. Hubert tied for second in the Big 12 in sacks and ranked 10th in TFLs.

Wyatt's tutelage of the ends in 2019 was a major factor in the Cats leading the nation in third-down defense at 28.0%, the best mark by K-State since at least 2003. K-State also allowed just 21.4 points per game, the second-best mark in the Big 12 and the program's best figure since 2003.

Wyatt went back to work tutoring Hubert in 2020 to another All-Big 12 First Team honor from the league's coaches – and was the only unanimous choice on defense – as he tied for third in the Big 12 and 16th in the nation in sacks. Hubert again earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player and Defensive Lineman of the Year awards in 2020. Thanks to Wyatt's teachings, Hubert finished his career tied for eighth in school history with 20.0 career sacks. Hubert went on to be selected in the 2021 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

As a team, the Wildcats ranked 27th in the nation and third in the Big 12 with 2.80 sacks per game. The Wildcats' national ranking was their best in five seasons.

Wyatt came to Manhattan after serving as a senior analyst at Kansas in 2018. His previous full-time assistant coaching job was tutoring the SMU defensive line from 2015 to 2017 under then-Mustang defensive coordinator and now K-State assistant head coach Van Malone. Wyatt's tenure in Manhattan is his seventh tour of duty in the Big 12 having coached at Oklahoma State (1996), Colorado (1999), Texas A&M (2000-02, 2008-09), Nebraska (2007) and Kansas (2010-14).

Helping teams advance to 11 bowls during his career, Wyatt has also worked at a pair of Big Ten schools in Minnesota (1992-95) and Northwestern (1997-98), in addition to SEC school Alabama (2003-06).

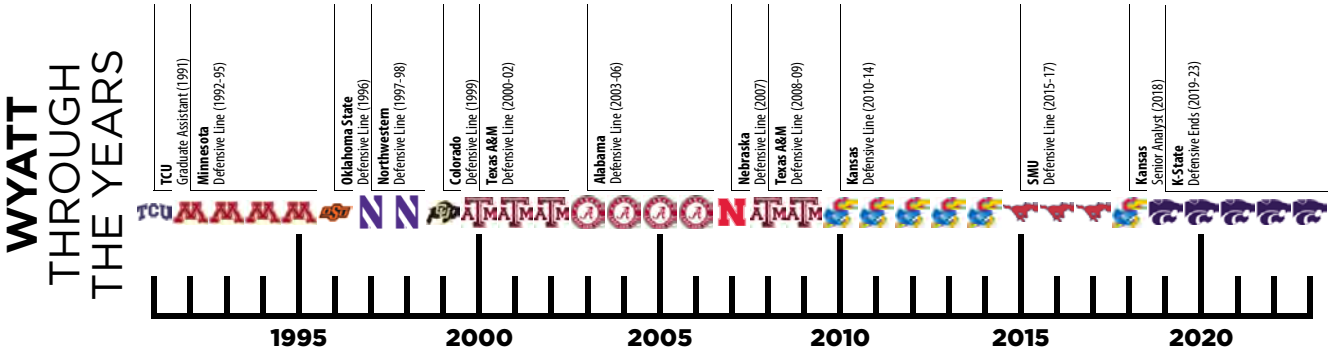

During his career, Wyatt has been selected to the NCAA Expert Coaches Academy, a program that addresses the shortage of ethnic minorities in college football head coaching positions and raises awareness regarding the deep pool of talented, qualified coaching candidates.

A native of Victoria, Texas, Wyatt was a defensive lineman at TCU from 1986 to 1989. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from TCU in 1990 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Horned Frogs working with the defensive line in 1991.

Wyatt and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Fred and Ariel. Fred played collegiately at Northwestern and is the current defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois.

 As a player*

Trumain Carroll, a 17-year veteran of the strength and conditioning field who has spent the last eight years leading strength and conditioning efforts at FBS schools, is in his third season at K-State in 2023.

Over Carroll's first two seasons in Manhattan, K-State has earned an 18-9 record and won the 2022 Big 12 Championship with a hard-fought 31-28 overtime victory over No. 3 TCU. Additionally, Carroll has been lauded for helping develop a new culture that has been spearheaded by K-State's four core values of disciple, commitment, toughness and being selfless.

Carroll came to Manhattan after one season as the Director of Football Strength and Conditioning at South Florida, while he was the Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Arkansas football program the previous two seasons.

No stranger to the Big 12 and the Midwest, Carroll played football at Oklahoma State from 2001 to 2005 and served two different terms as an assistant strength coach for the Cowboys, while he also was the Director of Strength and Conditioning at the University of Missouri-Kansas City from 2008 to 2011.

After his playing days at OSU where he helped the Cowboys earn three-consecutive bowl berths, Carroll was an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2006 to 2008. While in Stillwater, Carroll designed and directed the strength program for the Oklahoma State women's basketball program that advanced to the Sweet 16 in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. He also assisted in the strength and conditioning program with the football team that won the 2006 Independence Bowl and the 2007 Insight.com Bowl.

Carroll then went to be the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at South Carolina State from 2011 to 2012 where he oversaw the strength and conditioning program for over 300 student-athletes in 14 sports before returning to OSU for the 2013 and 2014 seasons and working with current K-State assistant head coach Van Malone.

In 2015, Carroll went to SMU as the Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Mustangs for three seasons. While in Dallas, Carroll oversaw all strength and conditioning for over 400 student-athletes in 17 sports with an emphasis in football, a time in which he worked with Malone and current Wildcat defensive ends coach Buddy Wyatt.

During his tenure at SMU, Carroll's efforts in the weight room aided in the development of All-American wide receivers Courtland Sutton and Trey Quinn, who both went on to NFL Draft selection. Sutton and Quinn were two of the most dynamic wide receivers in college football in 2017, each posting 1,000-yard receiving seasons to become one of the only pair of teammates in the FBS to accomplish the feat.

In addition to Sutton and Quinn, Carroll has helped develop 19 other players that have been selected in the NFL Draft, including six during his two years at K-State.

Carroll earned his bachelor's degree in university studies from Oklahoma State in December 2005. He received his Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach Certification in May 2007 and his USA Weightlifting Sports Performance Certification in February 2008. Most recently, Carroll earned his Master Strength and Conditioning Certification in May 2020.

Carroll and his wife, Jarne, have a young son, Deuce.

▶ Game Notes

• The attendance for tonight's season opener was 50,469... It was the first sellout for K-State since the 2019 Oklahoma game (50,394)... The 2019 season – which was the first for head coach Chris Klieman – had three sellouts as the Baylor (50,448) and Nicholls (51,189) contests were also sellouts... The game against Nicholls was Klieman's first at the helm of the Wildcats.

• K-State scored its first touchdown 10 seconds into the game on a 75-yard run by wide receiver Malik Knowles... It was the fastest score in a game in school history... The previous fastest was an 11-second score against Louisiana Tech in 1988... The previous record for a season-opening score was 12 seconds on a Morgan Burns kickoff return against South Dakota in 2015... It was the first time K-State scored on its first offensive play since a 68-yard touchdown from Skylar Thompson to Dalton Schoen against West Virginia in 2019... Knowles' 75-yard rush tied for the 12th-longest run in school history, a mark he also had at Baylor in 2020.

• Seth Porter blocked South Dakota's second punt of the evening, which Desmond Purnell scooped up and returned 17 yards for a touchdown... It was the second-straight season K-State had a blocked punt for a touchdown, as the Wildcats had one last year against West Virginia... It is the first time K-State had a blocked punt for a touchdown in consecutive seasons since 2007 and 2008.

WILDCATS BLANK SOUTH DAKOTA IN OPENER

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State didn't waste any time in getting the fireworks started on its 2022 football season.

It took all of 10 seconds.

Wide receiver Malik Knowles took a handoff and darted 75 yards for a touchdown on the very first play from scrimmage, the fastest opening score in K-State history, and Preseason All-American Deuce Vaughn rushed for 126 yards and one touchdown, as the Wildcats rolled to a 34-0 victory over South Dakota in front of a sellout crowd of 50,469 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State, 1-0, outgained South Dakota, 0-1, 393 to 270 overall, and stormed to a 27-0 halftime lead with three rushing touchdowns and another off a blocked punt. The Wildcats, who returned 13 starters and seethed with momentum after a dominant win over LSU in the Texas Bowl, appeared dominant from the start in an opening contest that was never in question ahead of an anticipated contest against former Big 12 Conference member Missouri.

A total of 66 different K-State players saw action as the Wildcats substituted as the game wore on over the final two quarters.

Adrian Martinez completed 11 of 15 passes for 53 yards and added 39 yards on 13 carries and a six-yard touchdown on the ground in his debut in the Wildcats' offense under first-year offensive coordinator Collin Klein. The 6-foot-2, 225-pound transfer from Nebraska completed passes to six different targets, including Knowles, who had three catches for 14 yards. Martinez was efficient, didn't commit a turnover, and managed the game well for his first game in a purple uniform.

Redshirt freshman Jake Rubley played the entire fourth quarter and appeared poised in the pocket during the first action of his career. Rubley went 4 of 4 for 43 yards.

K-State's experienced defense was largely effective as defensive coordinator Joe Klanderman utilized the 3-3-5 alignment throughout the contest. Felix Anudike-Uzomah, the Preseason Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, recorded the Wildcats' first sack of the season early in the first quarter. Safety Cincere Mason recorded the first interception of the season for the Wildcats late in the first quarter.

It wasn't until Carson Camp completed a 13-yard pass to Javion Phelps with 8:29 left in the third quarter that South Dakota reached 100 yards in total offense. However, the Coyotes saw their 11-play drive end with fourth-down incompletion.

The Coyotes threatened late when they reached the red zone on their final drive of the game, but Cartez Crook-Jones stuffed Mike Mansaray at the four-yard line on fourth down to preserve the shutout.

While K-State recorded its first shutout since 2019, the Wildcats enjoyed their first opening-play touchdown since against West Virginia in 2019.

Martinez handed the ball off to Knowles, who ran around the left side. Vaughn sprung him with a block. And Knowles raced down the Wildcats sideline as cheers swept through the stadium during the march into history.

K-State's previous fastest opening score came in an 11-second score against Louisiana Tech in 1988.

Soon after, the special teams punt-block unit enjoyed a victory of its own when Seth Porter swept in and blocked a South Dakota punt and Desmond Purnell scooped up the football and returned in 17 yards for a touchdown with 8:14 left in the first quarter. Amazingly, it marked the Wildcats' 126th non-offensive touchdown since 1999, which leads the FBS over the span. Alabama ranks second with 118 non-offensive touchdowns.

Vaughn scored his first touchdown of the season when he raced around the right side, cut inside, and weaved 39 yards into the end zone with 49 seconds remaining in the quarter for a 20-0 lead.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State improved to 4-0 against non-conference Power 5 opponents under head coach Chris Klieman... The Wildcats won at Mississippi State in 2019 before defeating both Stanford (season opener) and LSU (Texas Bowl) last season... Dating back to his days as the head coach at North Dakota State, Klieman is now 6-0 against non-conference Power 5 opponents, as his Bison team defeated Iowa State in 2014 and Iowa in 2016.

• K-State tallied four interceptions on the day, the first time the Wildcats had at least four picks in a game since the 2014 Texas Tech game... Daniel Green and Nick Allen each had an interception, the first time linebackers had at least two picks in a game since Elijah Lee had two himself against TCU in 2015.

• Deuce Vaughn has rushed for at least 100 yards in eight-straight games dating back to last year, which is the second-longest streak in school history... Vaughn also has a rushing touchdown in nine-consecutive games, which is the fifth-longest streak in school history... With his effort against Missouri, Vaughn went from outside the top 10 to eighth in school history in career rushing yards, a mark that now stands at 2,171... Vaughn now has 28 rushing touchdowns, which is tied for sixth in school history.

• Phillip Brooks returned a punt 76 yards for a touchdown... It was the longest punt return since Isaiah Zuber took one 85 yards for a touchdown in the 2018 season opener against South Dakota... Brooks now has four punt-return scores in his career to move into sole possession of second place in school history.

CATS DOMINATE IN WIN OVER MISSOURI

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State fans chanted "Big-Twelve-Football" and the marching band blared "Happy Trails" as soggy Missouri fans headed to the exits, and the Wildcats thumped the former Big 12 Conference member 40-12 in the first meeting between the teams since 2011 at rainy Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Ponchos were the garment of the day among the 51,806 fans — many of whom returned after the initial lightning delay — but wetness did little to extinguish the flame of an old-school rivalry rekindled under the stadium lights in Manhattan. The K-State Marching Band played on, and new K-State men's head basketball coach Jerome Tang stood in the K-State student section and performed the Wabash, as the Wildcats prevailed in the 98th meeting between the schools on the gridiron.

For the Missouri natives on the K-State team, the game took on a heightened meaning. That includes senior wide receiver Phillip Brooks, a native of Lee's Summit, Missouri, who returned a punt 76 yards into the end zone to give the Wildcats a 20-3 lead in the second quarter.

Lightning prompted a 57-minute game delay with 7 minutes, 44 seconds left in the second quarter. When the teams returned to the field, Brooks provided the fireworks, and he now has four career punt-return touchdowns, which ranks second in K-State history.

The big storyline during the contest? Which team would better handle the rain. Deuce Vaughn had 145 rushing yards and two touchdowns — a 1-yard run that gave K-State a 7-3 lead late in the first quarter, and a 24-yard score early in the fourth quarter for a 33-6 advantage.

K-State seemed to handle the conditions much better than Missouri which is located 250 miles down Interstate 70. For a second-straight game, K-State senior transfer quarterback Adrian Martinez managed the offense without committing a turnover. He completed 9 of 20 passes for 101 yards and added 52 yards and one score on the ground, as the Wildcats outgained the Tigers 336 to 222 amid sporadic downpours. K-State held a 235-94 edge in rushing yards.

Meanwhile, the K-State defense forced an interception on four consecutive possessions, marking the first four-interception performance by the Wildcats since 2014.

Safeties Kobe Savage and Cincere Mason, and linebackers Daniel Green and Nick Allen each recorded a pick for a defense that also featured 10 tackles for loss, including a sack by Preseason Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year Felix Anudike-Uzomah.

It wasn't until the final play of the game following a roughing-the-quarterback penalty that K-State surrendered its first touchdown of the 2022 season on a 1-yard touchdown run with no time left on the game clock. K-State shut out South Dakota 34-0 in its season opener and for 60 minutes held Missouri to two field goals — until the untimed play with no time remaining.

After Missouri managed a game-opening 11-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 49-yard field goal, the Wildcats' defense made the Tigers appear largely pedestrian. Ten of the Tigers' next 13 drives went for 20 or fewer yards. An 8-play, 54-yard drive in the third quarter resulted in a 44-yard field goal. K-State led 20-6 and responded with a pair of Chris Tennant field goals of 35 and 27 yards while scoring the next 20 points.

Redshirt freshman running back DJ Giddens scored the Wildcats' final points when he raced 28 yards through the middle of the field with 2:33 left.

▶ Game Notes

• It was the third-straight sellout of Bill Snyder Family Stadium to open the 2022 season... It is the first time since the 2017 season that K-State sold out its first three games (Central Arkansas, Charlotte, Baylor)... That season, the Wildcats sold out the first six games of their seven-game home slate.

• Kansas State intercepted two passes, giving the Cats seven for the season... The seven interceptions in the first three games are the most by the Wildcats since the 2000 squad also had seven against Iowa (1), Louisiana Tech (4) and Ball State (2)... The interceptions on Saturday came from Daniel Green and Kobe Savage, who each carded their second-straight game with a pick.

• Senior linebacker Daniel Green intercepted a second-quarter pass and returned it 49 yards... It was the longest interception return by a Wildcat since Dante Barnett went 51 yards against Michigan in the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl... It was the longest return by a linebacker since Alex Hrebec went 51 yards against Iowa State in the 2008 season finale... His two picks this season is the first time a Wildcat linebacker has had multiple interceptions in a season since Da'Quan Patton in 2019.

• Linebacker Austin Moore and safety Kobe Savage each recorded new career highs in tackles... More tallied eight stops, which bettered the six he had last week against Missouri... He also tallied a career-high 2.0 tackles for loss for a second-straight week... Savage finished the game with seven tackles, bettering the three stops he had last week against the Tigers.

TULANE EDGES K-STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State head coach Chris Klieman earlier in the week insisted that Tulane was a good team. Unfortunately, the Wildcats found out exactly how good the Green Wave was.

Adrian Martinez threw for 150 yards and one touchdown, and Deuce Vaughn added 81 yards on the ground, but the Wildcats found difficulty converting on third and fourth down and an exhausted defense struggled to put the brakes on late in a 17-10 loss to Tulane in front of a sellout crowd at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Despite its challenges, K-State was tied 10-10 heading into the final 5 minutes. However, Tulane quarterback Michael Pratt showed his moxie with a 4-yard touchdown pass to Tyrick James with 4 minutes and 27 seconds remaining. The Wildcats were unable to answer, and the Green Wave took control and converted on fourth-and-1 from their own 24-yard line in the final minute to secure their first win over a Power 5 conference team since 2010.

Although K-State and Tulane both had 336 total yards, both offenses struggled in sustaining drives. Tulane went 1 for 12 on third down while K-State went 2 of 15. The Wildcats also went just 1 of 5 on fourth down. None proved more costly than when the Wildcats faced fourth-and-1 at the Tulane 44-yard line late in the game but were unable to keep alive their drive.

That set up Tulane at its own 48. Pratt rushed for 11 yards, completed a 15-yard pass, then scrambled for 21 yards to the K-State 5. A 1-yard rush by running back Iverson Celestine set up Pratt's short touchdown pass for a 17-10 lead.

The Wildcats saw their ensuing drive stall and the Green Wave ran out the clock on one of their biggest victories in two decades.

Vaughn had 20 carries for 81 yards, bringing an unfortunate end to his streak of eight consecutive 100-yard rushing games and a streak of nine straight games with a rushing touchdown.

Pratt went 13 of 26 for 176 yards and one touchdown and two interceptions while adding a career-high 87 rushing yards on 12 carries for the Green Wave, who suffered a 40-35 loss at No. 2 Oklahoma last season in Norman.

Tulane struck first when running back Tyjae Spears, playing as Wildcat quarterback, ran one yard into the end zone to cap a 9-play, 91-yard drive with 3:13 left in the first quarter. It was the longest drive allowed by the K-State defense this season and marked the first time the Wildcats trailed by a touchdown.

Martinez and Kade Warner combined to tie the score at 7-7 with 2:43 left in the second quarter when Martinez threw his prettiest and longest pass of the season — a 21-yard completion to high-flying Warner, who hauled into the ball in the corner of the end zone and showed off his strength and concentration by maintaining possession despite being struck by two different defenders on his way to the turf.

Then the K-State defense sprang into action. Pratt threw a dart down the middle of the field that linebacker Daniel Green picked off and returned 49 yards down the Green Wave sideline with 28 seconds remaining in the second quarter. It marked Pratt's first interception of the season and the second interception by Green in two games.

Martinez took over at the Tulane 23 and got the ball to the 4 before his incompletion through the back of the end zone prompted a Chris Tennant 22-yard field goal as time expired for halftime.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State earned its 11th all-time victory against an Associated Press top-10 team, while it was the fifth in a road game... The Wildcats have now defeated a team ranked in the AP Top 25 in four of the last six seasons, including the third time under head coach Chris Klieman... The Wildcats won vs. No.5 Oklahoma in 2019 and at No. 3 Oklahoma in 2020.

• K-State totaled 509 yards of total offense, the first time going over 500 yards since last year's KU game (504 yards)... It was the most total offense by the Wildcats since tallying 521 against Bowling Green in 2019 and the most against a Big 12 team since going for 535 yards against Texas Tech in 2014.

• Adrian Martinez threw for 234 yards a touchdown on 21-of-34 aim, while he rushed for 148 yards and four touchdowns on 21 carries... He set a new career high in rushing TDs, bettering the three he had last season against Northwestern while playing for Nebraska... It is the most rushing touchdowns by a Wildcat since Skylar Thompson had three at Oklahoma in 2020.

• Deuce Vaughn rushed 25 times for 116 yards, while he hauled in two passes for 13 yards... He tallied his 15th career 100-yard rushing game, which remains the second most in school history... In each of his three games against Oklahoma, Vaughn has gone for 100 yards in either rushing (2022) or receiving (2020 and 2021).

• Martinez and Vaughn each eclipsed the 100-yard mark on the ground... It is the first time the Wildcats had two 100-yard rushers in the same game since the 2017 Cactus Bowl and the first in a Big 12 game since doing so against Oklahoma in 2017.

MARTINEZ, CATS GO WIRE-TO-WIRE IN NORMAN

NORMAN, Okla. – Kansas State players said that they were hungry after ending their non-conference slate with a loss. The Wildcats opened their Big 12 Conference season by taking a bite out of a familiar foe in record-setting style.

Adrian Martinez threw for 234 yards and one touchdown and added 21 carries for 148 yards and four touchdowns, while Deuce Vaughn added 25 carries for 116 yards, as K-State vaulted past No. 6 Oklahoma, 41-34, in front of a sellout crowd at Memorial Stadium.

It marked the most points K-State has ever scored in Norman in a series that began in 1908.

It also marked the third time in four meetings that K-State beat Oklahoma. That includes the second straight time in Norman, where the Sooners are usually infallible, yet saw their mystique crack at the hands of Martinez & Co., who spoiled the first Big 12 game for Oklahoma head coach Brent Venables in his first game against his alma mater.

Martinez, who threw for nearly 300 yards against Oklahoma last season when he played at Nebraska, was amazing in his first Big 12 game as a Wildcat, engineering five touchdown drives, including two in the fourth quarter when the Sooners tried to keep up on the scoreboard.

K-State never trailed. It stormed to a 14-0 lead when Martinez completed a 6-yard scoring toss to Knowles, then took a 24-17 lead into the locker room, then led 27-20 after three quarters, and led 41-27 with 1 minute, 58 seconds remaining. In a game that was projected to be a defensive battle, K-State and Oklahoma combined for 75 points and 1,059 total yards.

Chris Kleiman improved to 3-1 against Oklahoma, winning 48-41 in 2019 in Manhattan, 38-35 in 2020 in Norman, then losing 37-31 last season before giving K-State its ninth victory over a Top 10 team since 2000 — four of which are against Oklahoma.

K-State outgained Oklahoma 550 to 509. The Wildcats launched a balanced attack — 275 rushing yards and 234 passing — against a Venables-led defense that entered among the fiercest in the FBS. The Wildcats ranked 13th in scoring defense and 20th in total defense in the FBS and proved they could go toe-to-toe against an Oklahoma offense that ranked 20th in scoring offense and 17th in total offense. Back and forth the teams battled, but the Wildcats kept the Sooners out of the end zone on five straight drives in the second half.

Oklahoma quarterback Dillon Gabriel completed 26 of 39 passes for 330 yards and four touchdowns and added seven carries for 61 yards. He threw back-to-back long touchdowns to Theo Wease (56 yards) and Marvin Mims (50) to tie the score at 14-14. Running back Eric Gray had 16 carries for 114 yards.

Martinez struck first and instantly showed flashes of his old self while using his arm and legs on a game-opening 12-play, 75-yard charge. He hit Ben Sinnott with two passes and Kade Warner with another, and rushed four times for 29 yards, including a 6-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead.

Sinnott had career highs with four catches for 80 yards. Phillip Brooks had seven catches for 56 yards. Knowles had four catches for 52 yards and one touchdown.

K-State's 24 points in the first half marked its most in the opening two quarters against Oklahoma in Norman since the Wildcats also scored 21 points in 2014.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State improved to 2-0 in Big 12 play for the second time in head coach Chris Klieman's four seasons in Manhattan and the eighth time since the Big 12 began in 1996... In each of the previous seven seasons the Wildcats won their first two Big 12 games, they finished with less than six Big 12 win just one time.

• Adrian Martinez rushed for a career-high 171 yards and three touchdowns... He tied for fifth in school history in rushing yardage by a quarterback in a game... Coupled with his 148 rushing yards at Oklahoma, it was the first time a K-State quarterback had consecutive 100-yard rushing games since Jesse Ertz in 2016 (106 vs. Iowa State; 153 vs. Oklahoma State), while it is the first time in Martinez's career he had back-to-back 100-yard rushing games.

• Martinez and Deuce Vaughn teamed for another 100-yard rushing game... It is the first time in school history K-State had two rushes with 100-yard games in back-to-back contests.

• Felix Anudike-Uzomah and Khalid Duke each finished the game with 3.0 sacks... It was the first time in school history the Wildcats had two players with 3.0 sacks in the same game... Each player tied for the fourth most sacks in a game in school history... It is the first time two K-State players had at least two sacks in the same game since Wyatt Hubert and Reggie Walker each carded 2.0 sacks against Texas Tech in 2018... Anudike-Uzomah now has 17.5 sacks in his career, just one shy of entering the school's career top-10 list.

FOURTH QUARTER SURGE PUSHES CATS OVER TECH

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Adrian Martinez earlier in the week said that No. 25 Kansas State had to prove its national ranking. The Wildcats did so emphatically while the star quarterback and running back Deuce Vaughn continue to prove themselves as one of the top tandems in the Big 12 Conference.

Martinez rushed for a career-high 171 yards and three touchdowns, and Vaughn added a career-high 170 rushing yards, as the Wildcats scored 17 unanswered points to outlast Texas Tech, 37-28.

Martinez started things off early. He rushed 57 yards on the first play from scrimmage and then rushed 18 more into the end zone just 40 seconds into the contest.

Although K-State continued its roll while defeating Texas Tech for the 11th time in 12 meetings, it didn't come without a few bumps — and a lively halftime speech from Klieman, who was displeased that his team led just 13-10 at halftime after numerous opportunities to widen the margin.

Martinez completed 12 of 19 passes for 116 yards and one touchdown — an 18-yard scoring toss to Phillip Brooks that made it 20-13. When Texas Tech quarterback Donovan Smith answered by firing a 12-yard touchdown pass to Xavier White to cap a 7-play, 75-yard drive and tie the score at 20-20, Martinez ripped off a 69-yard run into the end zone early in the fourth quarter.

Chris Tennant, who was 3 for 3 on field goals, booted a 32-yarder to give the Wildcats a 30-20 lead with 9 minutes, 7 seconds left in the game.

Martinez put it away with a 12-yard touchdown run with just under 6 minutes to go, which extended the lead to 37-20.

K-State did a magnificent job of bouncing back after essentially going nearly one quarter of playing time without a touchdown.

Texas Tech outgained K-State 473-459 and ran 82 offensive plays after twice posting 100-plus plays earlier this season. The Wildcats held the high-octane Red Raiders to 5.8 yards per play. Smith completed 34 of 48 passes for 359 yards and two touchdowns — completing passes to 13 different players. But he also suffered two interceptions and was sacked six times — three by Khalid Duke and three by Felix Anudike-Uzomah, the Big 12 Preseason Defensive Player of the Year.

When Texas Tech knotted the score a 20-20 late in the third quarter, the Wildcats' defense, which appeared gassed at times, knew it needed to respond. And after Martinez's long run put K-State ahead by a touchdown, the defense buckled down. Texas Tech failed to convert on fourth-and-5 at its own 40-yard line — a critical play as cornerback Ekow Boye-Doe broke up a pass intended for J.J. Sparkman across the middle to give the Wildcats possession.

Shortly after, Tennant's 32-yard field goal lifted the Wildcats to a two-score advantage.

For a second straight week, the K-State offense played lights out, averaging 7.9 yards per play behind Martinez and Vaughn, who became the first duo in school history to reach 100 rushing yards in consecutive games.

Vaughn increased his career rushing total to 2,684 yards, moving to No. 5 on the school's all-time list.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State improved to 3-0 in Big 12 play for the second time in head coach Chris Klieman's four seasons in Manhattan and the seventh time since the Big 12 began in 1996... In each of the previous six seasons the Wildcats won their first three Big 12 games, they finished with less than six Big 12 win just one time.

• The Wildcats are 5-1 halftime through its 12-game schedule... It is the third time in Chris Klieman's four seasons at the helm that the Wildcats won five of their first six games... It is the seventh time K-State has won at least five of their first six games since college football implemented a 12-game schedule in 2006.

• The nine points surrendered by K-State on Saturday was the fewest since allowing just seven points to Stanford in the 2021 season opener... It was the fewest against a Big 12 opponent since the 2018 Texas Tech game (6) and the fewest in a Big 12 road game since the 2016 TCU contest (6)... In a tightly contested series against Iowa State, it was the fewest surrendered to the Cyclones since 2013 (7) and the fewest allowed in Ames since 2003 (0).

• Wide receivers Phillip Brooks (119) and Malik Knowles (108) each tallied 100-yard receiving games... It is the first time the Wildcats had two 100-yard receivers in the same game since 2017 against Central Arkansas (Byron Pringle: 121 yards; Isaiah Harris: 118 yards)... It is the first time in a Big 12 game since the 2014 Kansas game (Curry Sexton: 141 yards; Tyler Lockett: 199 yards).

CATS OUTLAST CYCLONES

AMES, Iowa – The latest nail-biting installment of the Kansas State-Iowa State rivalry, called Farmageddon, ended shortly after 9 p.m. But for a third-straight Saturday, it was 9AM for another Big 12 Conference opponent.

Adrian Martinez, adoringly called "9AM," took a final kneel down, K-State head coach Chris Klieman pumped his fist on the visitor's sideline, and more than 60,000 at Jack Trice Stadium stood in silence as time ticked down on the Wildcats' fourth-quarter comeback victory.

No. 20 K-State 10, Iowa State 9.

Martinez, who accounted for 669 total yards and nine touchdowns in wins over then-No. 6 Oklahoma (41-34) and Texas Tech (38-27), threw for 246 yards and one touchdown and added 19 carries for 77 yards, and the Wildcats' defense, called countless times to hold down the Cyclones' offense, stiffened again and again.

K-State led 7-6 at halftime, then trailed 9-7 on a 43-yard field goal by Jace Gilbert with 5 minutes, 27 seconds left in the third quarter.

K-State responded in handing Iowa State just its fourth home loss in the last 30 games.

Chris Tennant nailed a 30-yard field goal with 7:14 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter for the 10-9 win, the lowest-scoring game in the series since a 7-7 tie in Ames in 1984.

The defense stiffened one last time when it mattered most, giving K-State its 12th-straight victory over Iowa State when ranked in the AP Top 25.

K-State's 10 points marked its fewest in a conference road win since a 9-3 victory at Iowa State in 1982. It marked the first time since 2016 that K-State held a Big 12 opponent to single digits on the road.

There were an abundance of big moments not necessarily seen upon the scoreboard. That included when the K-State defense forced Iowa State head coach Matt Campbell to go for it on fourth-and-7 at the K-State 49-yard line with 2:29 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The defense forced Hunter Dekkers into an incompletion, the Wildcats took possession, and they ran out of the clock. It put a stamp on the program's first 5-1 start since 2020, and a 3-0 Big 12 record, which makes the Wildcats the only 3-0 undefeated team in the Big 12 league standings.

K-State outgained Iowa State 388 to 276 and held the Cyclones to just 5 of 15 on third downs. That the Wildcats limited Dekkers to just 198 passing yards while completing 22 of 38 passes, and limited the Cyclones to just 78 rushing yards on 24 carries underscored their outstanding performance.

Iowa State entered the game outscoring its opponents 37-7 in the fourth quarter. K-State allowed the Cyclones a field goal in the first, second and third quarters, and then finally delivered the knockout punch and held the Cyclones off the scoreboard over the final 15 minutes.

Phillip Brooks had four catches for a career-high 119 receiving yards and Malik Knowles had five catches for 108 yards. It marked the first time K-State had two 100-yard receivers since Byron Pringle (121) and Isiah Harris (118) on September 2, 2017.

Xavier Hutchinson, the nation's leader in receptions, had eight catches on 17 targets for 100 yards.

K-State struck first and fast, as Martinez found Brooks streaking down the field for an 81-yard catch-and-run touchdown and a 7-0 lead less than 3 minutes into the game. It was the longest K-State completion since 2017 and ended up being the only time K-State or Iowa State reached the end zone.

K-STATE DOWNED AT EIGHTH-RANKED TCU

FORT WORTH, Texas – No. 17 Kansas State was forced to use three different quarterbacks, and an injury-plagued defense simply couldn't keep up with one of the top offenses in the FBS, as No. 8 TCU charged to a 38-28 victory over the Wildcats at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Starting quarterback Adrian Martinez left after the first possession with an injury and junior Will Howard showed incredible poise in leading the Wildcats to touchdowns on four straight possessions, as the Wildcats took a 28-17 lead into the half. When Howard was tackled hard and injured his left shoulder late in the third quarter, redshirt freshman Jake Rubley came into the game.

By the time Howard returned to the field with 12 minutes remaining in the game, the Wildcats faced a 38-28 deficit, which proved to be too much to overcome in the matchup between two top-20 teams for sole possession of first place in the Big 12 Conference standings.

Howard completed 13 of 20 passes for 225 yards and two touchdowns and one interception added nine carries for 31 yards and one score on the ground for K-State, which entered the game just seven points from an unbeaten record.

Malik Knowles had four catches for 69 yards. Deuce Vaughn had 12 carries for 83 yards and one touchdown and had four catches for 38 yards.

Vaughn reached 2,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in his storied career, becoming just the 10th player in Big 12 history to do so.

However, TCU showed why its offense ranks near the most efficient in the nation while snapping a three-game losing streak to the Wildcats. The Horned Frogs outgained the Wildcats 495 to 390 and went 10 for 19 on third downs. K-State was held to 3 of 9 on third downs.

K-State, which entered near the top of the nation in scoring defense, did an admirable job limiting TCU, and then — boom — the powerful Horned Frogs scored 28 unanswered points.

TCU rolled to 239 yards in the second half while K-State managed just 82. The Wildcats substituted liberally as injuries on both sides of the ball mounted as the game went on.

Howard was tackled hard on a short run and injured his left shoulder at the TCU 26-yard line with 5:15 left in the third quarter. That brought Rubley under center. However, the Wildcats proved inconsistent against the TCU defense while Max Duggan helped the Horned Frogs light up the scoreboard en route to their fourth straight win against a nationally-ranked opponent.

While Duggan went 17 of 26 passing for 280 yards and three touchdowns, and running back Kendre Miller had 29 carries for 153 yards and two touchdowns. It wasn't until star wide receiver Quentin Johnston hauled in a 55-yard touchdown reception that TCU took the lead at 31-28 with 3:45 left in the third quarter.

The Wildcats, who have held every FBS opponent under its scoring average, could never recover and were held off the scoreboard the entire second half.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State took down its second top-10 opponent of the season, the other being a win on Sept. 24 at then-No. 6 Oklahoma... It is the first time in school history the Wildcats defeated multiple top-10 teams in a season... The Wildcats are now 5-3 in their last nine games against top-10 teams dating back to Nov. 18, 2017, a span that began with a 45-40 victory at No. 10 Oklahoma State... In the previous 16 meetings with top-10 opponents prior to that Oklahoma State game, the Wildcats were 1-15.

• Kansas State shut out Oklahoma State, as the Wildcats' 48-0 victory was the largest ever shutout win by a lower-ranked team against an AP Top-10 team... It tied for the fifth largest shutout win ever over an AP Top-10 team and the largest since No. 10 USC was shut out 51-0 by No. 1 Notre Dame in 1966... It was the first time the Wildcats ever shut out an AP Top-10 team... All of his touchdown passes came in the first half, the third time in school history a player had four touchdown passes in a half... His 296 yards were a career high topping a 243-yard effort against Kansas in 2020.

CATS SILENCE NO. 9 OKLAHOMA STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. – The theme for Kansas State Homecoming week was "Wildcat Dreams." K-State in dream-like fashion issued a statement across the college football world with one of the most lopsided victories in top-10 history.

Will Howard threw for 296 yards and four touchdowns, and the defense enjoyed its most dominant effort against a Big 12 Conference opponent this season, as No. 22 K-State throttled No. 9 Oklahoma State, 48-0, in a historic display that ended with students flooding the field and carrying the hero quarterback off on their shoulders at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

And one week after K-State suffered a 38-28 loss at No. 8 TCU, Howard picked up the Wildcats during his first start of the season in place of injured senior Adrian Martinez. K-State claimed sole possession of second-place in the Big 12 while posing the largest ever shutout victory by a lower-ranked team against an AP top-10 opponent.

K-State, 6-2 overall and 4-1 in the Big 12, captured bowl eligibility for a second straight season and for the third time in four years, hobbling the Cowboys, 6-2 and 3-2, in bareknuckle fashion and shutting out Oklahoma State for the first time since a 10-0 win in 1992.

Oklahoma State became the first top-10 team to suffer a 40-plus point shutout loss since No. 11 California beat No. 10 Syracuse 43-0 in 1968. It also marked Oklahoma State's first shutout loss against a Big 12 opponent since a 27-0 defeat at Oklahoma on November 28, 2009.

Oklahoma State averaged 45.7 points and 466.9 total yards, and left with no points and 217 total yards to the delight of 51,133 that also saw Howard and his wide receivers make a statement as Deuce Vaughn raced up the all-time rushing charts.

Vaughn rushed 22 times for 158 yards and one touchdown and added four catches for 18 yards and a 1-yard touchdown reception with 7 seconds left in the second quarter to lift K-State to a 35-0 halftime lead.

In the process, Vaughn passed Ell Roberson at No. 4 and Daniel Thomas at No. 3 in all-time in rushing at K-State. Vaughn has 2,948 yards. He needs 46 more to pass John Hubert for No. 2 on the all-time rushing list.

Meanwhile, Malik Knowles had the best game of his career with eight catches for 113 yards. Kade Warner finished with five catches for 97 yards and two touchdowns — one a 38-yarder and another on a 41-yard catch-and-run through the teeth of the Cowboys' defense in the first half. Phillip Brooks had two catches for 41 yards and a 31-yard touchdown reception as well.

K-State outgained Oklahoma State, 495-217, and averaged 6.7 yards per play while the Cowboys averaged just 3.4. K-State also held Oklahoma State to just 5-of-15 on third downs.

Howard was sensational from the start, finding Warner for a 38-yard touchdown, hitting Brooks with a 31-yard score, and connecting with Warner for a 41-yard catch-and-run.

In between, Vaughn raced up the all-time rushing charts while darting 62 yards into the end zone. On Vaughn's long run, he passed Roberson and Thomas on the all-time rushing chart.

K-State led 28-0 with 9:06 still remaining in the second quarter.

The Wildcats saved one of their best drives of the first half for last, when Howard took them on a 14-play, 77-yard jaunt that consumed 6:35 and was played to perfection, as they ran time off the clock before Howard hit Vaughn with a 1-yard pass in the end zone for a 35-0 lead with 7 seconds left until halftime. Howard's four touchdown passes tied for the most in school history.

SECOND-HALF COMEBACK FALLS SHORT

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Adrian Martinez accounted for 381 total yards and three touchdowns and No. 13 Kansas State battled back from a 21-point deficit to provide a nail-biting finish against Texas, but a turnover with 24 seconds left sealed the Wildcats' fate in a 34-27 loss in front of a sellout crowd at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Martinez threw for 329 yards and two touchdowns and one interception, but the senior transfer quarterback appeared to try to do too much when he checked down on his progression in the pocket and tried to make a play late. Keondre Coburn stripped the ball and Jaylan Ford recovered at the Texas 39-yard line to thwart the Wildcats' chances to tie the game and match the largest comeback in school history.

Texas took a 31-10 lead into halftime behind a dominant rushing attack before the Wildcats began their charge. K-State gave up its most first-half points of the season, then outscored the Longhorns, 17-3, in the final two quarters.

Texas came off a bye week following a loss to Oklahoma State in which it squandered a 31-17 lead against the Cowboys. The Longhorns were able to bounce back behind the legs of All-America candidate Bijan Robinson, who gashed the Wildcats for 209 rushing yards on 30 carries and one touchdown.

K-State had an ace of its own in returning Consensus All-American Deuce Vaughn, who had 19 carries for 73 yards. He tied Saquan Barkley of Penn State as the fastest Power 5 player to reach 3,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards since 1996. Both did so in just 32 games. Vaughn, who has 3,021 career rushing yards, also moved past John Hubert into No. 2 all-time at K-State, trailing only Darren Sproles.

Vaughn also had seven catches for 86 yards and one touchdown, racing into the end zone on a 28-yard catch-and-run play for the Wildcats' opening score. However, those feats were bittersweet.

K-State, which saw Texas score on each of its first three possessions and score on five of its first six, mounted a valiant comeback behind the arm and legs of Martinez, who rushed for a 1-yard score and hit a wide-open Kade Warner for a 25-yard touchdown across the middle of the field to slice its deficit to 31-24.

K-State spent its first half with its mind on halting Texas. K-State outgained Texas, 468-466, for the game but never led on the scoreboard in a matchup that pitted Robinson against Vaughn. Robinson started things off with a 36-yard touchdown run and Vaughn answered with his long touchdown catch before the Longhorns pulled ahead and the Wildcats were forced to play catchup the rest of the way.

K-State's up-and-down night began from the start as the Longhorns scored touchdowns on each of their first three possessions — a 36-yard rush by Robinson, a 9-yard run by Roschon Johnson and a 13-yard reception by Xavier Worthy to cap scoring drives that each covered 75 yards.

The Wildcats initially fired back with a seven-play, 65-yard drive in which Martinez hit Vaughn across the middle for a 28-yard catch-and-run score, which tied the score at 7-7 with 8:41 left in the first quarter, but for as much as the Wildcats scratched, their deficit continued to swell.

▶ Game Notes

• Deuce Vaughn moved into second place in school history in career rushing yards, a mark that now stands at 3,021... In his 32nd career game, he became the sixth player in Big 12 history – and the fastest ever – to reach 3,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in a career... Among all players nationally since 1996, he became the 34th player to hit those marks and tied for the fastest to get there with Saquon Barkley (Penn State) and Jeremy McNichols (Boise State)... He also improved his career reception total to 104, the most in school history among running backs/fullbacks.

• Adrian Martinez came back from injury to earn his eighth start of the season... His 329 passing yards were the most by a Wildcat since Skylar Thompson had 334 yards against Oklahoma in 2020... His 24 completions were a new season high... Martinez threw his first interception of the season in the first half, which came on his 155th pass of the season to break the record of most pass attempts into a season before throwing an interception... The record was held by Chad May, who went 151 passes without a pick to begin the 1994 season... The only other K-State QB besides Martinez and May to go at least 100 pass attempts into a season without throwing a pick was Michael Bishop in 1998 (107).

• Malik Knowles hauled in three passes for 93 yards and returned five kickoffs for 78 yards... He improved his career all-purpose yardage mark to 3,446 yards, which moved him from ninth place to seventh place in school history... He moved into 12th place in school history in career receiving yards, a mark that now stands at 1,682.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State limited Baylor to just three points, the fewest allowed by the Wildcats in series history and the fewest scored by Baylor overall since the 2020 season finale against Oklahoma State... It was the fewest allowed by K-State in a Big 12 road game since a 45-0 win at Iowa State in 2003... The Bears were averaging 38.3 yards per game entering the contest, as K-State has held all of its Big 12 opponents under its average coming into the season and 27 times in their 34 Big 12 games under head coach Chris Klieman.

• Kansas State's 28-point margin of victory was its highest against Baylor since a 51-13 home victory in 2007 and the highest in Waco since a 44-10 win in 2002... It was K-State's highest margin of victory in a Big 12 road game since a 38-10 victory at Kansas in 2019.

• Deuce Vaughn carded his seventh 100-yard rushing game this season, which is tied for the seventh most in school history... During the game, Vaughn went over 1,000 rushing yards for a second-consecutive season... He became just the third player in school history with multiple 1,000-rushing yard seasons, joining Darren Sproles (2002, 2003, 2004) and Daniel Thomas (2009, 2010)... He reached the 1,000-yard mark on his 177th attempt of the season as he tied for fourth in school history for the fastest to 1,000 rushing yards... He moved into fifth place in school history in career rushing attempts, a mark that now stands at 556... He has now scored 234 points to rank ninth place in school history.

• Ben Sinnott set career highs in catches, yards and touchdowns... It is the first time since at least 1996 that a K-State tight end had multiple receiving touchdowns in a game.

NO. 19 K-STATE ROLLS TO WIN AT BAYLOR

WACO, Texas – Will Howard came off the sideline to throw for 186 yards and three touchdowns, and Deuce Vaughn had 104 rushing yards to reach 1,000 rushing yards for the season, as No. 19 Kansas State raced past Baylor, 31-3, to move into sole possession of second place in the Big 12 Conference at sold-out McLane Stadium.

Howard was thrust into the game early and instantly shifted K-State into gear, as the Wildcats methodically took apart the Bears' defense to snap a four-game skid in the series and stamp their first victory in Waco since 2016.

K-State, 7-3 overall and 5-2 in the Big 12, was emphatic against Baylor, which entered averaging 38.3 points per game. Consider K-State held Baylor to its fewest points in series history, one that spans 20 games.

Baylor's three points also marked the fewest K-State has allowed Big 12 opponent on the road since a 45-0 win at Iowa State on November 8, 2003. Furthermore, Baylor's three points also tied for the fewest points by either K-State or Baylor in a series that dates to 1969.

K-State controlled the game in all three phases, rolled to a 17-3 halftime lead, and then took care of the rest over the final two quarters.

The Bears saw their three-game winning streak swiftly come to an end as the Wildcats took control early and never looked back. K-State outgained Baylor 405-306 in total offense, as the Bears, 6-4 and 4-3, suffered their worst loss since a 42-3 defeat to No. 22 Oklahoma State on December 12, 2020.

Howard guided an offense behind a methodical attack with three scoring drives of at least 11 plays. K-State dictated the game from start to finish while holding onto the ball for 37 minutes and 37 seconds.

Howard's favorite target was tight end Ben Sinnott, who had the best game of his career, lighting up the Bears' secondary twice for touchdowns, and forcing defenders to try and defend him while Vaughn picked apart the defense on the ground.

Sinnott had seven catches for 89 yards with touchdown catches of 15 and 19 yards. Sinnott's second touchdown came when he beat fifth-year senior safety Christian Morgan on a wheel route and made a leaping back-shoulder catch near the front pylon for his second touchdown of the game late in the third quarter for a 24-3 lead.

When Howard wasn't connecting with Sinnott, he was finding Vaughn in space. Vaughn had 25 carries for 106 yards and added eight catches for 50 yards and one touchdown.

Redshirt freshman running back DJ Giddens scored a touchdown of his own with 14:06 left in the fourth quarter and the party was on.

Blake Shapen, who came off the sideline to lead Baylor to a 20-10 win over K-State last season, was largely ineffective against K-State's defense. Shapen went 22 of 38 for 203 yards and two interceptions. Running back Richard Reese, one of the top freshman running backs in the nation, had nine carries for 54 yards.

Kobe Savage and Drake Cheatum took turns intercepting Shapen. The Wildcats now lead the Big 12 with 13 interceptions this season.

Meanwhile, the Bears went just 4-for-12 on third down and went 0-for-3 on fourth down after entering Saturday as one of the national leaders in fourth-down conversions. The Bears were totally limited and held the ball for just 22:23 — a fact that wasn't lost on K-State players.

Klieman has 28 victories since taking over at K-State prior to the 2019 season, while he totaled 69 wins in five years at North Dakota State and three wins during the 2005 season at Division III Loras College.

• Kansas State scored 48 points, tying a season high (Oklahoma State)... It was the most in a road conference game since scoring 49 points at Texas Tech in 2013... The Wildcats scored 41 first-half points, their most in a first half since scoring 42 against Florida Atlantic in 2016 and the most against a Big 12 opponent since scoring 43 in the first half of the Kansas game... The Wildcats finished the game with a 113-point scoring margin in first halves this season, the highest in the Big 12.

• Wide receiver Malik Knowles carded six catches for 111 yards and a touchdown... It was the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career and the third this season... He now has 1,811 career receiving yards as he moved into the school's top-10 list, ranking ninth... He now has 123 career receptions to tie for 10th in school history.

OFFENSE SHINES AS K-STATE DOWNS WVU

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. – No. 15 Kansas State scored on six of its first seven possessions and maintained its inside track for a spot in the Big 12 Championship Game with a 48-31 win at West Virginia.

In one of the wildest first halves in a K-State game in years, the Wildcats raced and rolled to a 41-25 lead at halftime, then surrendered just one touchdown the rest of the way to emphatically earn their first victory in Morgantown since 2014.

Will Howard, who started for a second time in place of injured Adrian Martinez, completed 19-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns and one interception to help the Wildcats tie the school record by winning their fourth road conference game of the season. The Wildcats previously won at then-No. 6 Oklahoma (41-34), at Iowa State (10-9), and at Baylor (31-3). The Wildcats also won four road Big 12 games in 1998 and 2012.

K-State has now won three of its last four games while Howard has put together several standout performances. He has thrown 11 touchdowns and one interception in the last four games in which he has played.

Playing in sub-30 degree temperatures, K-State seemingly put things on ice from the beginning in scoring four touchdowns on its first five possessions against a West Virginia defense that entered ranked 118th in scoring defense and 101st in total defense.

The Mountaineers are eliminated from bowl contention for a second time in four years under Neal Brown despite a valiant effort from sophomore quarterback Garrett Greene, who in his first-career start went 15-of-27 passing for 204 yards and three touchdowns and two interceptions.

However, K-State's defense, which has been decimated by injury as the season has worn on, stiffened when it needed to, particularly in the second half, after the teams combined for 66 points and 553 total yards in the first two quarters.

West Virginia opened the third quarter and went on a 16-play, 49-yard drive that consumed 8:35 but resulted in no points when Casey Legg missed a 44-yard field goal.

On the prettiest play of the game for the Wildcats, Howard connected with Knowles on a 43-yard touchdown to make it 48-25 with 12:24 left in the fourth quarter. Facing third-and-13, Knowles caught the ball at the 32-yard line, spun around Malachi Ruffin and out-raced Exree Loe down the sideline before diving into the end zone.

K-State tied its season high in points this season, carded its most points in a conference road game since scoring 49 points at Texas Tech in 2013, and also enjoyed its highest-scoring first half since it scored 42 against Florida Atlantic in 2016. West Virginia allowed its most points in an opening half since Baylor hung 56 on the Mountaineers during the first half in 2013.

The Wildcats' scoring barrage began from the first possession when Deuce Vaughn dashed 15 yards into the end zone less than three minutes into the contest. Then Cincere Mason returned an interception 37 yards for a score one minute later for a 14-0 lead.

West Virginia got on the scoreboard when Sam James scored on a 26-yard reception. Then Ruffin returned an interception 43 yards for a score. However, West Virginia missed the point-after attempt and K-State led 14-13 with 6:41 left in the first quarter.

K-STATE WINS 14TH STRAIGHT OVER KU

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Will Howard threw for 213 yards and two touchdowns and Deuce Vaughn rushed for 147 yards and one score as No. 12 Kansas State punched its ticket to the Big 12 Championship Game with a 47-27 victory over Kansas that gave the Wildcats their 14th consecutive win in the Dillions Sunflower Showdown.

Amid persistent rain and mist, K-State relied upon its passing game during the first half and then rode Vaughn and its powerful offensive line to the finish line in front of 51,861 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. K-State will now face TCU in the Big 12 Championship game.

K-State's only losses this season have been to teams currently ranked in the College Football Playoff Top 25. The Wildcats have essentially otherwise rolled.

K-State won the 2012 Big 12 title but will play in its first Big 12 title game since 2003. The Wildcats could've clinched a spot in the 2022 league title game if Texas had lost to Baylor on Friday. With Texas' win, the Wildcats had to beat the Jayhawks in order to face the Horned Frogs.

Although K-State led by nine points at halftime, the margin seemed smaller. Second-year Kansas head coach Lance Leipold has the Jayhawks playing their best football in more than a decade and they wouldn't go down easily.

However, K-State outscored Kansas, 17-6, over the final two quarters, then celebrated with the Governor's Cup trophy presentation in the locker room.

Howard was 11-of-18 for 213 yards and two touchdowns in the opening two quarters. Then Vaughn had 17 carries for 94 yards and one touchdown in the second half, as the Wildcats bellied up and drove the ball down the field.

K-State outgained Kansas 443-307 behind a balanced attack — the Wildcats had 230 rushing yards and 213 passing.

K-State limited the Jayhawks to one scoring drive in the second half — an 8-play, 75-yard jaunt that took 8 minutes, 20 seconds and resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Jalon Daniels to cut the Wildcats' lead to 37-27 with 13:29 left in the fourth quarter. But the Jayhawks failed to capitalize on their momentum and misfired on their two-point conversion.

Moments later, Ty Zentner connected on a 27-yard field goal for a 40-27 lead before the Wildcats pounded the ball on the ground 85 yards on eight plays, capped by DJ Giddens' five-yard run into the end zone with 4:30 remaining.

All that remained was the K-State Marching Band playing "Happy Trails."

K-State and Kansas combined for 51 points and 481 total yards in the first half, as the Wildcats led 31-20 heading into the locker room.

K-State opened the scoring when Kansas muffed a punt and the Wildcats recovered, setting up Knowles for a 5-yard touchdown. However, Kansas responded, going 75 yards in nine plays, as Torry Locklin raced 12 yards into the end zone to tie it at 7-7.

The Wildcats had several exciting plays in the first half, the first of which came when Howard demonstrated his recognition and patience in finding wide-open Wheeler for a 42-yard touchdown.

Moments later, and pinned deep in its own territory, Kansas right tackle Bryce Cabeldue was called for holding in the end zone for a safety and the Wildcats led 16-7. The Wildcats drove again, and Knowles raced four yards for another touchdown and a 23-7 lead.

TY ZENTNER

OT FIELD GOAL LIFTS CATS TO BIG 12 TITLE

ARLINGTON, Texas – No. 10 Kansas State used a monster fourth-down stop in overtime and Ty Zentner drilled a 31-yard field goal as the Wildcats outlasted No. 3 TCU in a 31-28 thriller to capture the 2022 Big 12 Championship at AT&T Stadium.

In what became an instant classic in K-State lore, the Wildcats captured their first Big 12 title since 2012, their first victory in a Big 12 Championship Game since 2003, and reached the top of the mountain in one of the best conferences in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

Afterward, confetti shot into the air, and K-State head coach Chris Klieman hoisted the Big 12 trophy.

K-State reached double-digit wins for the first time since the 2012 campaign, in which the Wildcats bounced back from a loss at Baylor to beat No. 23 Texas 48-24 in Manhattan. These Wildcats redeemed themselves from a 38-28 loss to the Horned Frogs earlier this season by handing them their first loss of the season. That's something the Wildcats also did in the 2003 title game when they beat unbeaten Oklahoma.

K-State has now beaten three top-10 opponents this season — the others were at No. 6 Oklahoma and against No. 9 Oklahoma State — for the first time in school history.

TCU had fought back to win five games in which it trailed, most in the FBS, and turned an 11-point deficit into a 28-28 tie behind gutty quarterback Max Duggan, the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year. Duggan was magnificent — he threw for 251 yards and one touchdown and one interception to go along with 110 rushing yards and one touchdown.

However, K-State received an equally gutty performance from Will Howard, who threw for 199 yards and two touchdowns. Running back Deuce Vaughn was named Big 12 Championship Game Most Outstanding Player after rushing for 130 yards while dashing 44 yards for a score to put the Wildcats ahead 28-17 with 11 minutes, 27 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

Back and forth the teams battled until the very end. TCU answered Vaughn's long touchdown with a 42-yard field goal by Griffin Kell and then an eight-yard rush by Duggan with 1:51 remaining in the fourth quarter. Jared Wiley caught the 2-point conversion for a 28-28 tie and the game went to an extra period.

K-State put the clamps on TCU's offense with perhaps the most important fourth-down stop in school history. Linebacker Daniel Green and nose tackle Eli Huggins stuffed Kendre Miller for no gain at the goal line, giving the Wildcats possession and a chance to win.

Under overtime rules, K-State began its drive at the TCU 25-yard line. The Wildcats rushed five times to set up Zentner's game-winner.

In the end, it came down to a single kick. And Zentner made arguably the biggest field goal in school history. And then he kissed the ground.

MVP: Deuce Vaughn, RB

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State earned its fourth conference championship in school history and the third in the Big 12 era... K-State is now tied for second in conference history with three Big 12 titles, joining Baylor and Texas... The Wildcats' first conference championship was in 1934 when they went 5-0 in Big 6 play... K-State won its first Big 12 title in 2003 with a 35-7 victory over No. 1 Oklahoma, while the Wildcats went 8-1 in Big 12 play in 2012 to claim the title as there was no Big 12 Championship Game conducted that season.

• The victory gave the Wildcats their 11th season with 10 or more wins and the first since an 11-win campaign in 2012, which was also the last time K-State won a conference championship... All but one of those campaigns had the Wildcats with 10 victories prior to a bowl appearance.

• K-State took down its third top-10 opponent of the season, the other two being a win at then-No. 6 Oklahoma and a home victory against then-No. 9 Oklahoma State... It is the first time in school history the Wildcats defeated multiple top-10 teams in a season... The Wildcats are now 6-3 in their last nine games against top-10 teams taking back to Nov. 18, 2017, a span that began with a 45-40 victory at No. 10 Oklahoma State... In the previous 16 meetings with top-10 opponents, the Wildcats were 1-15... Head coach Chris Klieman is now 7-6 all-time against AP Top-10 teams, including a 5-2 record at K-State.

• Kansas State earned its fourth all-time overtime victory and first since a 42-35 victory at Texas Tech in 2017... The Wildcats avenged an overtime loss in the 1998 Big 12 Championship against Texas A&M.

▶ Game Notes

• The Sugar Bowl was the first meeting ever between K-State and Alabama... The Wildcats fell to 10-14 all-time in bowl games... The Wildcats are now 0-5 all-time in games played in the state of Louisiana, including a 0-2 mark in New Orleans.

• Deuce Vaughn rushed 22 times for 133 yards and a touchdown... His 133 rushing yards were the fifth most by a Wildcat in school bowl history... Vaughn finished the season with 1,558 rushing yards this year to rank third in school history... It was his ninth 100-yard rushing game this season, which is tied for second in school history... He finished the season 1,936 all-purpose yards to rank fifth in school history... In his two bowl games played, Vaughn has 279 rushing yards, the most career rushing yards in K-State bowl history.

• Vaughn had an 88-yard touchdown run in the first quarter... It was a career-long rush (previous long: 80 yards at Kansas in 2021), the second-longest rush in Sugar Bowl history (92 yards by Ole Miss' Raymond Brown vs. Texas in 1958), the longest rush in K-State bowl history (previous long: 68 yards by Alex Delton vs. UCLA in 2017 Cactus Bowl) and tied for the longest overall play in school bowl history (88 yards, Michael Bishop to Darnell McDonald vs. Purdue in 1998 Alamo Bowl)... It was also the sixth-longest rush in school history and the longest since John Hubert went 95 yards against Missouri State in 2012... It was the longest rush given up by Alabama in the last 20 years.

K-STATE FALLS IN SUGAR BOWL TO ALABAMA

NEW ORLEANS, La. – No. 9 Kansas State found itself trailing No. 5 Alabama, 21-10, at halftime, and badly in need of points to mount a furious comeback in the Sugar Bowl. It had been 56 days since K-State tasted the bitter tang of defeat. Since then, the Wildcats had always answered the call.

Unfortunately, the Crimson Tide instead answered any questions about where they stand in the hierarchy of college football.

Will Howard threw for 210 yards and two interceptions, and Deuce Vaughn had 22 carries for 133 yards and one touchdown, but the Big 12 Champions saw their season come to an end in a 45-20 loss in their first New Year's Six bowl game at Caesars Superdome.

The first-ever meeting between K-State and Alabama appeared to be evenly matched over the first 20 minutes before Bryce Young & Co. turned on the juice against the Wildcats in front of 60,437, which included an estimated 30,000 purple-clad loyalists who never seemed to lose their passion.

Purple filled the streets of New Orleans ahead of the highly-anticipated contest coming off K-State's first league title in 10 years. The Wildcats sought to tie the school record with 11 wins. But Crimson swarmed the field and finished their season at 11-2 in their 17th appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

K-State finished its memorable season at 10-4.

K-State had beaten three top-10 opponents in a single season for the first time in history — No. 6 Oklahoma, No. 9 Oklahoma State and No 3 TCU. They were simply ineffective against the traditional SEC powerhouse over the final three quarters.

Vaughn capped a memorable junior season with one of the best rushing performances in K-State bowl history. He put a stamp on a stellar junior season in which he earned Consensus All-American for a second straight season. Vaughn finished with 1,558 rushing yards to rank third in school history and his nine 100-yard rushing performances tied for second most in school history. His 1,936 all-purpose yards finished fifth in school history.

The game turned late in the first half. Just when it appeared K-State damaged Alabama while successfully alternating between Adrian Martinez and Howard at quarterback, the Wildcats saw a monster 18-play, 73-yard drive that took 10:32 of possession time yielded no points.

Twice the Wildcats successfully converted on fourth down. They just were unable to convert on the third fourth-down opportunity of the long drive — a fourth-and-goal play from the 2 when Howard threw the ball just past the outstretched arms of Ben Sinnott as he raced left to right a foot inside the end zone.

Unfortunately for the Wildcats, the opportunistic Crimson Tide took advantage of the momentum swing. Young, likely a top-5 pick in the 2023 NFL Draft, who was brilliant in throwing for 321 yards and five touchdowns to five different pass catchers, led a 98-yard drive.

Alabama took over possession at the K-State 2-yard line with 61 seconds left in the second quarter. Trusting its defense, K-State called a timeout with 55 seconds remaining after the Wildcats stuffed Jahmyr Gibbs for a 2-yard gain. Alabama came out of the timeout and Young immediately threw a 22-yard pass to Gibbs. Three plays later, Young hit Jermaine Burton for a 28-yard gain, then hit Cameron Latu for 22 yards. Finally, facing first-and-10 at the K-State 12, Young connected a 12-yard touchdown pass to Burton deep in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown.

MICHAEL BISHOP

Quarterback • 1997-98 • Class of 2023

The namesake behind the "Wildcat" formation, quarterback Michael Bishop brought a new dynamic to college football as one of the game's first true dual-threat quarterbacks. Bishop, who led the Wildcats to a 22-3 record during his two-year career, left K-State holding 26 game, season or career records, including career rushing yards by a quarterback (1,314), career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (23), lowest interception percentage in a season (1.36% in 1998), single-game passing yards (441 vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 1998), passing yards in a season (2,844 in 1998), passing touchdowns in a season (23 in 1998), career passing touchdowns (36), longest pass (97 yards vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 1998) and total offensive yards in a season (3,592 yards in 1998).

Quarterbacking the Wildcats to a victory in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl over Syracuse, Bishop led K-State to an 11-0 start to the 1998 campaign as the Wildcats earned their first No. 1 ranking in school history as they sat atop the coaches' poll toward the end of the season. K-State generated 479.4 yards of total offense that season thanks to Bishop, who accounted for 37 touchdowns. After totaling over 1,500 passing yards and 500 rushing yards as a junior in 1997, Bishop improved those figures during his final campaign when he threw for 2,844 yards and 23 touchdowns while rushing for 748 yards and another 14 scores.

A product of Willis, Texas, who came to K-State from Blinn Junior College, Bishop won the Davey O'Brien Award in 1998 in addition to being a runner up for the Heisman Trophy and finalist for the Maxwell and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm awards. Bishop's outstanding 1998 season came on the heels of a 1997 campaign in which he was named the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year and MVP of the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, a 35-18 victory over Syracuse.

Following his time at K-State, Bishop was drafted in 1999 by the New England Patriots. He later went on to play 10 seasons in the Canadian Football League, helping lead the Toronto Argonauts to a victory in the 2004 Grey Cup.

Bishop was selected to the K-State Football Ring of Honor in 2015, while a year later he was inducted into the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame. He was also inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2012.

Running Back • 2001-04 • Class of 2021

One of the most electric and prolific runners in college football history who ranks as Kansas State's all-time leading rusher and holds more than 20 school and conference records, Darren Sproles was enshired in the College Football Hall of Fame in 2021

A First Team All-American in 2003, Sproles finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting after leading the nation with 1,986 rushing yards. A three-time All-Big 12 performer, he earned first team honors in 2003 and 2004 and second team accolades in 2002. In 2003, Sproles led K-State to the Big 12 title – its first conference title since 1934 – after posting 345 all-purpose yards, catching a 60-yard touchdown pass and rushing for a Big 12 Championship Game record 235 yards in an upset win over No. 1 Oklahoma. One of three finalists for the 2003 AP Player of the Year, he earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in 2002, and he led the FBS in all-purpose yards (2,067) in 2004. The 2003 Doak Walker Award finalist led the Wildcats to three postseason berths, including a win in the 2002 Holiday Bowl, and two top-15 finishes in 2002 (No. 7) and 2003 (No. 14).

Sproles finished his career 11th all-time in rushing and sixth all-time in all-purpose yards in NCAA history. A member of the K-State Football Ring of Honor, he left Manhattan with 28 single-game, single-season or career records, 21 of which are still standing. The senior team captain boasts program career records for rushing yards (4,979), all-purpose yards (6,812), rushing attempts (815), rushing yards per carry (6.11), 100-yard rushing games (24) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (10). Sproles still holds three of the top five single-season rushing performances in school history, including the top mark of 1,986 in 2003. His 2,735 all-purpose yards in 2003 are a Big 12 and K-State single-season record, and he also holds conference records for career 100-yard games and career all-purpose yards.

A fourth-round pick by the San Diego Chargers in the 2005 NFL Draft, Sproles played 15 seasons in the league with the Chargers (2005-10), New Orleans Saints (2011-13) and Philadelphia Eagles (2014-19). The three-time Pro Bowl selection was a member of the Eagles team that won Super Bowl LII. Currently ranked sixth in NFL history with 19,696 all-purpose yards, Sproles set the single-season league record with 2,696 in 2011.

BILL SNYDER

Head Coach • 1989-2005, 2009-2018 • Class of 2015

Bill Snyder, the architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football," became just the fourth person in the history of college football to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as an active coach as the legendary K-State coach was part of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame Induction Class of 2015.

A five-time national coach of the year honoree and seven-time conference coach of the year recipient, Snyder compiled an amazing 215-117-1 record in his 27 years at the helm of the Wildcat program, leaving as the 20th winningest coach in FBS history. Called the "coach of the century" by hall of fame coach Barry Switzer, Snyder's accomplishments at K-State were nearly unthinkable considering what he inherited during his first tour of duty beginning in 1989. The Wildcat program was in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired and had been to just one bowl game in its first 93 seasons. During a the span of 11-straight bowl seasons (1993-2003), Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories – a staggering 10 wins per season – and making K-State the nation's second winningest program over that period. His first tenure included a Big 12 Championship in 2003 in a 35-7 win over No. 1 Oklahoma, while his 1998 team held a No. 1 ranking.

The 14th fastest coach in college football history to win 100 games at the time of his induction, Snyder was a three-time Big Eight and four-time Big 12 Coach of the Year, and he took home almost every major college football coaching award after the 1998 season, including those presented by Walter Camp and the Associated Press.

Following a three-year hiatus, Snyder returned to the sidelines in 2009, and it was more of the same as his teams accumulated a 79-49 record and eight bowl berths in his final 10 seasons.

Included in the second tenure was a pair of 10-win campaigns in 2011 (10-3) and 2012 (11-2). The 2012 Wildcats captured the program's second Big 12 Championship and held another No. 1 national ranking. After turning 75 years old on Oct. 7, 2014 – which qualified him to be included on the 2015 ballot – Snyder's team promptly traveled to No. 11 Oklahoma and pulled out a 31-30 victory, a key component of the Wildcats' nine-win season in 2014.

MARK SIMONEAU

Linebacker • 1996-99 • Class of 2012

Former Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau became just the second Wildcat football player to be elected to the Hall of Fame as he was enshrined as a member of the Class of 2012.

The 1999 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year also notched 15.5 sacks and seven fumble recoveries.

A 1999 Butkus Award runner-up and a three-time First Team All-Big 12 selection, he led Kansas State to one of the greatest stretches in school history. With Simoneau on the roster, the Wildcats earned a 42-7 record, which included a 28-4 mark in Big 12 play, a claim to two Big 12 North titles, three AP top 10 finishes, the first No. 1 ranking in school history, and wins in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl and the 1999 Holiday Bowl. He became the school's seventh Consensus All-American when he earned the nod in 1999.

GARY SPANI

Linebacker • 1974-77 • Class of 2002

Additionally, Spani was Heisman Trophy Linebacker Award finalist and was named defensive MVP in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Japan Bowl.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles in three-straight seasons and was twice named the team's most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the K-State career record book as the program's all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110). He averaged 17 tackles per game his senior year, and recorded at least 20 tackles in four games.

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons. He is the all-time leading tackler in Chiefs history with 999 career stops thanks to posting five 100-tackle campaigns. He was inducted into the Chiefs Ring of Honor in 2003.

BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM

Renamed in honor of legendary head football coach Bill Snyder by a proclamation of the Kansas Board of Regents on Nov. 16, 2005, Bill Snyder Family Stadium will host its 53rd season of Wildcat football this fall.

Originally named KSU Stadium, the facility was built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions. The stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000, and an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side.

Following the 1998 season, the addition of a deck and sky suites on the east side of the stadium increased capacity to more than 50,000. On Nov. 11, 2000, 53,811 fans witnessed Kansas State's 29-28 win over Nebraska. It remains the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Kansas.

A complete teardown and rebuild of the Vanier Family Football Complex, the installation of new video and message boards, in addition to an enhanced sound system and the implementation of public WiFi are some of the most recent additions to Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2015.

Prior to the 2018 season, Kansas State was an innovator on the playing surface scene as Bill Snyder Family Stadium became the first Division I football venue in the United States to install the latest artificial turf product from AstroTurf – RootZone Trionic 3D.

The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 53-year history of the stadium:

STEVE & KAY THEEDE CLUB LEVEL

1970: A statewide spring fund-raising drive raised $250,000 for the installation of Astroturf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It housed all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result was one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure carried the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kansas.

1991: New Astroturf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including suites, and a $2.2 million indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center became a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron, new scoreboards and marquis message board.

1999: Following the 1998 season, the facility underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000 with temporary seating.

2002: A new FieldTurf playing surface was installed. The $850,000 project was completed in late May of 2002 and featured an innovative sand and rubber infill mixture and is the newest technology in competitive field products.

2003-07: The Vanier Football Complex received a complete makeover that included a new training facility, weight room, equipment room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, locker room and permanent seating in the north end zone.

2006: New video and message boards were installed at the north and south ends of Bill Snyder Family Stadium at a cost of $1.7 million. The south end of the stadium received a fully integrated ProStar VideoPlus display system that measures 23' X 61'.

2007: The seating in the lower bowl of Bill Snyder Family Stadium was completely upgraded, including new chairbacks below the press box on the west side of the stadium and aluminum benches throughout the balance of the lower bowl. A new stadium sound system was also installed.

2011: Phase I of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master renovation plan began. A new AstroTurf Gameday Grass 3D infill playing surface was installed as well as construction of additional restroom facilities on the east side view level of the stadium.

2012: Construction began on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the West Stadium Center. The new $75 million WSC includes new amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms, press level, suites, club and loge seating and ticket offices replaced the facilities on the west side. Additionally, a new Team Fan Store and Hall of Honor was included on the main Concourse Level.

2013: Construction on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – West Stadium Center completed in time for the start of the season.

2014: Construction began on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new Vanier Football Complex – following the completion of the season.

2015: Construction on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new $65 million Vanier Football Complex – completed in time for the season.

2016: Phase IIIB of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan, which features a new video board, showcase stage for the marching band and visiting locker room, was completed in time for the season.

2018: K-State replaced its playing surface as it installed AstroTurf's newest product – RootZone Trionic 3D – becoming the first Division I football program in the country to install the product. Additionally, the east side club was renovated.

2020: Construction on the South End Zone project began. In time for the 2020 season were two new video boards in the southeast and southwest corner to mirror those in the north end.

2021: The Shamrock Zone in the south end zone was completed and transformed the south concourse by providing a completely covered walkway area with consessions for general seating in the south end zone. Above, suites, loge boxes and a club area services both football and basketball.

2023: The new Shamrock Practice Facility was completed. Located on the east side of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the facility helps the program save time from meetings straight to the practice field, while side-by-side full-size indoor and outdoor fields provide ample space for full team and positional work.

Note: Prior to the opening of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus.

K-STATE SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"K-S-U, we'll carry the banner high, K-S-U long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory in the combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of K-State athletics. In the fall of 1968, the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming basketball game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to K-State has become a second fight song.

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT...

It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State's public-address announcer began what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, he would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, the P.A. announcer did this ritual alone. However, at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase and began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, K-State's P.A. announcer no longer even needs to finish the phrase as the Wildcat fans finish it for him.

RING OF HONOR

K-State started a new tradition in 2002, as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from Kansas State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at K- State.

The inaugural induction class of 2002 included six members, while four members were added in both 2008 and 2015, bringing the total number to 14 players. The names of the players are displayed on the east side upper deck and on a unique ring display in the West Stadium Center concourse.

The entire list of players in the Ring of Honor can be found on pages 204-205.

HARLEY DAY

A creation of former athletic director Max Urick, Harley Day, is one of the most popular days of the year for Wildcat fans. Led by Willie Wildcat, Harley Day participants, with their engines blaring, take the short ride around the playing surface of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, where they are greeted by a boisterous crowd.

It's an exciting time to be a Wildcat!

With recent and future facility investments, academic advancements and athletics success, Kansas State University is on the rise to be the next-generation land-grant university.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

HALE LIBRARY

MULTICULTURAL CENTER

K-State was established in 1863 as the nation's first operational land-grant university. As such, the university's mission has always been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond. K-State is governed by the Kansas Board of Regents.

This fall, K-State launches its next-generation land-grant university strategic plan. Building on our foundation, we will once again lead the way as the next-generation land-grant university — operating as a future-focused, inclusive and connected community that inspires discovery, creates prosperity, impacts society and transforms lives in Kansas and beyond.

About Our Campuses

The Manhattan campus encompasses more than 2,320 acres, including agricultural and research facilities. The campus is known for its historic limestone buildings. This classic college town, located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas, is home to more than 56,000 residents and growing steadily, attracting local and national businesses.

One hour west, in Salina, is the Kansas State University Salina Aerospace and Technology Campus, which is known for its educational focus on experiential learning, professional pilot program and its renowned unmanned aircraft systems programs.

K-State Olathe, in the Kansas City metro area, offers digital skills bootcamps, including cybersecurity and digital marketing. A range of professional development workshops related to the animal health industry also are offered. In addition, the campus offers academic programs that include a bachelor's degree completion program in hospitality management and master's and doctoral degrees for professionals seeking career advancement in a variety of science-based fields.

K-State Online, home to 100-plus online and distance programs, is your connection to education that puts you on a path to amplify your potential. Professional development workshops and enrichment programs are also offered through this campus.

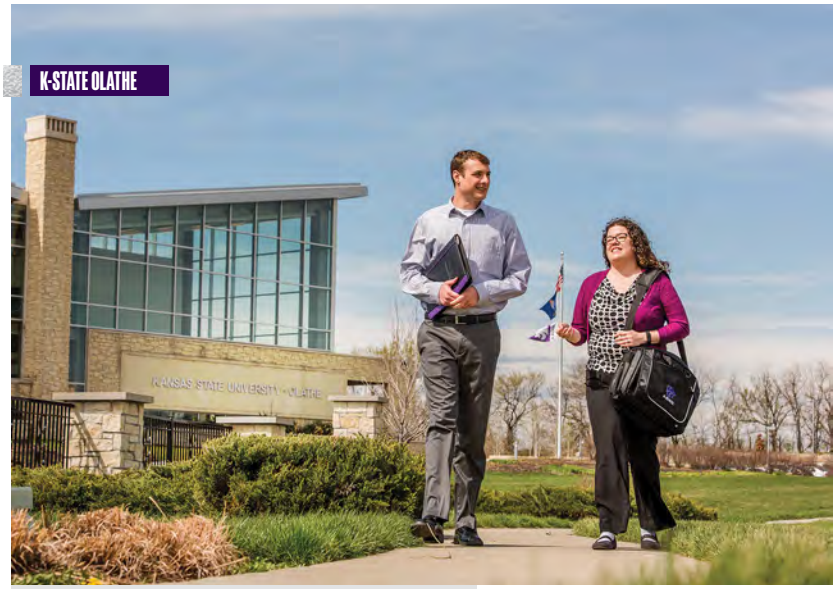

K-State Research and Extension offers numerous extension centers, offices and other facilities in every county in Kansas, as well as in Nebraska.

Student Achievement

K-State students are strong performers academically who persist to graduation. Students also have an outstanding record when it comes to winning national competitions. The Wildcat Wind Power Team won the U.S. Department of Energy's 2023 Collegiate Wind Competition, and K-Staters have placed in the top five in areas like robotics, debate, forensics, aviation, construction science, architecture, engineering, leadership and more.

Gene Taylor's K-State program took the college athletics world by storm in 2022-23 as Chris Klieman's football team won the 2022 Big 12 Championship and played in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and Big 12 Coach of the Year Jerome Tang and his men's basketball squad made a remarkable run to the Elite Eight following a preseason poll that picked the Wildcats to finish last in the league. Both coaches were hired at K-State by Taylor, who was also named the 2022-23 Cushman & Wakefield FBS AD of the Year following a record year.

A member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and the LEAD1 Board of Directors, Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for four bowls and win the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and staff have fundraised and begun to implement a department-wide facility master plan that will benefit all Wildcat teams including the newly completed baseball and soccer projects in addition to Building Champions, a $126.5 million initiative focused on the South End Zone of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the new Morgan Family Arena for volleyball, an Olympic training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility for football.

Taylor, who named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium in 2020, has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented.

With the support of fans and donors, K-State Athletics has also continued to be financially self-sufficient and does not receive support from the university. In FY 2019, a year earlier than anticipated, the program ended the practice of receiving student privilege fees in support of the program. This move makes Taylor's program one of eight across the country to operate with no direct or indirect university and student funding or state support.

In addition to achieving a budget surplus for the ninth, 10th, 11th and 12th straight years, overall pledges and cash gifts to the department during the 2022 fiscal year totaled a record $58.9 million, of which $20.4 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program and surpassing its budgeted goal previous record of $18.9 Million in FY19. Included in the $20.4 million in annual giving was a department record $801,000 raised during the Powercat Auction. The department also received $42.6 million in cash giving, marking only the third time in history it has eclipsed the $40 million mark.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in year four led the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship. Taylor also hired Tang to lead the men's basketball program, Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Pete Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats back to the Big 12 Championship in his first year on the job.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida. He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell. He served 13 years as Athletics Director at North Dakota State before being named Deputy AD at Iowa in 2014.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

GAMEDAY INFO

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering Kansas State football on either a season or individual-game basis must to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website at www.k-statesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies on page 233. Prior approval of credentials does not guarantee a credential in 2023.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes will not be mailed. Passes may be picked up at a location to be determined by the K-State Athletics Communications Office. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions to press parking areas.

Photographers

Only a limited amount of accredited photographers/videographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. All photographers must obtain and wear a K-State Athletics vest (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 20-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 16 years old are not permitted on the sideline.

Photographers are asked to stay behind the white dotted line on the field with priority given to individuals operating cameras and parabolic microphones for the television network broadcasting the game.

The designated photographer work space is on the field level of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, just inside the northeast (visiting team) tunnel. Tables, chairs, power strips and wireless internet are provided and the area may be used on a first-come, first-served basis.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at 785.532.2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

K-State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization or publication. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling.

Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials or interviews.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID email addresses are listed on pages 30-31.

K-STATE CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines.

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers and websites regularly covering Kansas State University, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Officially recognized Kansas State University student publications or electronic media outlets.
4. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show will receive top consideration.
5. Non-daily newspapers reporting on the game.

These guidelines were developed prior to July 1, 2023 and are subject to change due to any alterations in city, county, University or Big 12 Conference policy.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

1. With the exception of media covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
2. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
3. Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not recognized as a legitimate media organization.
4. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
5. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
6. Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conferences from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.
7. Each outlet requesting credentials will be permitted a MAXIMUM of TWO "on-field" passes which can be designated for still photography or video use. These two passes MUST be utilized in a working fashion and each user must check out a PHOTO VEST from the press level (which must be worn on the field at all times).

Now in his 37th year in the booth and having called 442-consecutive games entering 2023, Weber passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as Big 12 Now on ESPN+ broadcasts.

A native of Goddard, Kansas, he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-American honors.
